

Motorcycles Roll At Ascot Friday

Motorcycle riders from over the West converge on Ascot Park in Gardena Friday night for the third American motorcycle Association meet of the season.

Interest is at a peak in cycle racing and Managing Director J. C. Agajanian looks for nearly 200 entries when gates open at 7 p.m. First race on

Queen Contest Planned for 'Little League'

North Torrance Little League East will have the annual queen contest Saturday at 11 a.m. at the New Garrett Field, on Van Ness just below the San Diego Freeway.

The contestants must be between 8 and 12 years old.

Candidates can contact Mrs. Maxine Kobe at 329-6938. Girls are to wear dresses.

The queen and the two princesses will receive a trophy on Opening Day, April 24.

the 18-event card is set for 7:15 p.m.

The Northern California contingent, headed by clever Mert Lawwill of San Francisco, has made plans to enter the meet. Lawwill is always a threat to "win it all."

Central California contributes such a standout as Gene Romero, the 1965 amateur champion at Ascot. Romero hails from San Luis Obispo.

San Diego is well represented by Cal Lacher and Mel Rayborn.

But when all the talk is over, the man they always come back to as the rider to beat is the little guy, Sammy Tanner, of Long Beach. Tanner is now over the 300-victory mark at the 183rd and Vermont Avenue half-mile and looks better than ever.

Other entrants include Ed Hammond and Guy Louis, Lynwood; Dick Hammer, Lakewood; Neil Keen, Pasadena; Eddie Mulder, Burbank; Bob Bailey, Anaheim; Bill Ershig, Van Nuys; Eddie Wirth, Manhattan Beach; Paul Conserriere, Hacienda Heights; and Ralph White, Torrance.

El Camino Nine Awaits Cerritos Game

Having established a 7-2 Metropolitan Conference slate, the El Camino College baseball team will play unbeaten Cerritos College at home next Tuesday at 2:30 p.m.

Cerritos has a two-year string of 25 victories. The Falcons are the defending Metropolitan Conference champions and are in first place for the current campaign with a 9-0 record.

El Camino's reputation and ambitions will depend on a continued well-balanced attack. "We aren't using any super-stars this season because we don't have any. But we have had good pitching and good hitting from the right people at the right time," coach Chuck Freeman said.

Dinner Set Tonight for Wrestlers

Vaughn Hitchcock, wrestling coach at California Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, will be the guest speaker at the El Camino College wrestling awards banquet tonight.

The banquet will be held at the Plush Horse Restaurant in Redondo Beach and will begin at 7 p.m.

Hitchcock's Cal Poly team was the recent college division winner of the National Wrestling Championship title.

Awards to be given at the banquet to the most improved and the most valuable wrestlers. The trophies will be presented to the winners by El Camino coach Dave Hengstler.

Master of ceremonies for the banquet will be Warrior track coach Ray Southstone.

Riviera LL Opens Season On Saturday

Pennants will fly and bats will swing Saturday at the opening day of Riviera Little League.

Ceremonies will start at 9 a.m. at Wilson Field. League President Carl Stiles will welcome the start of the season. The Boys Scouts will be in charge of flag raising.

Following the presentation of the teams, a full day of baseball will be played at the two fields. All teams are to report to the field at 7:30 a.m., it is reported.

Gymnasts Perform At Camino

If you ask Warrior coach Walter Hetz, he would say it was illness that defeated the El Camino College gymnastics team 58-89 rather than Santa Monica College.

However, the team looks healthy for its meet with Long Beach College Thursday. Action is scheduled at 3:30 p.m. in the Warrior Gym.

With Terry Titus of Gardena was out with the flu against Santa Monica. "We just lost our depth against Santa Monica," coach Hetz said. "We had one man carrying the whole load," he added.

That one man was Gordon Punt of Inglewood who finished first in five events. They were the long horse, free exercise, horizontal bars, parallel bars and all around.

He also took second in tumbling.

Eldon Goldsmith of Lomita finished second in rope climb.

Finishing third in all-around and parallel bars was Gary Marshall of Torrance.

Swimmers Mix At EC Pool

Santa Monica's Corsairs may walk the plank Friday when they invade El Camino for a Metropolitan Conference swim meet at 3:30 p.m.

Craig Hendrickson, one of the "best-ever" EC swimmers, will compete in the individual medley, the 200-yard freestyle and the 200-yard back stroke.

SMCC, on the other hand, is weakened by the loss of its top man, John Reitman, who was in an auto accident several weeks ago and suffered a concussion.

For El Camino, Don Nakamura and Fred Becker are other potential pointmakers. Nakamura will enter the diving competition and Becker the free-style events.

THIS WAY DOWN . . . El Camino gymnast Terry Titus demonstrates in the college gymnasium. He is performing a baroni. El Camino will meet Long Beach tomorrow in the college gym.

Huge Screen to Be Used For Indianapolis 500

J. C. Agajanian has announced plans to show the Indianapolis 500-miler on a huge closed-circuit screen at the Los Angeles Sports Arena Monday, May 30.

It will be the third year the Sports Arena has been the largest house in the nation screening the world's biggest auto race.

Agajanian reports he has arranged for the biggest screen in the world, one measuring 30 feet by 40 feet, to show the event.

Too, new Eidophor projection equipment, coupled with vastly improved sound gear, will enable the Sports Arena to present vastly improved viewing conditions for the spectator.

The arena seating has been revamped to accommodate the huge new screen. Now there will be only one screen and fans will sit at one end of the

Coaches Picked For All-Star City Football

Selection of coaches for the first annual Los Angeles City Prop All-Star Football Classic Aug. 26, has been announced.

Named to coach the South team is Jim Pendleton of Los Angeles High whose Romans won the city championship in 1965 and were runners-up in 1963 and 1964. He will be assisted by Jack Bobinette of Narbonne High and Joe Goldin, also of Los Angeles High.
