Phillips To Open Quarters

Gordon C. Phillips, a Torrance attorney seeking the Democratic nomination in the 67th Assembly District, will hold a reception this afternoon at his new campaign headquarters, 4303 Redondo Beach Blvd., Lawndale.

Phillips, who has served as a judge pro-tem of the South Bay Municipal Court, has invited all residents to visit his new quarters between 2 and 6 p.m. today.

A native of Milwaukee, Wis., Phillips moved to Compton with his family and attended junior and senior high schools there. He was graduated from the University of California with a degree in criminology and received his law degree from Hastings College of Law in San Francisco.

PHILLIPS AND his wife, Sandra, reside at 205-45 Madison St. with their two daughters, Melissa and Deborah.

A director of the South Bay Bar Association, Phillips is a former vice president and director of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce. He presently serves on the governmental affairs and education committees of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

He is a past president of the Torrance Democrats, Inc., and vice president of the Torrance Democratic Association. Phillips also is a member of the Lions Club and the Elks Club.

PHILLIPS WAS elected to the Democratic County Central Committee from the 67th District in June, 1964. He has resigned that post to seek the nomination for the State Assembly.

He is admitted to practice before the United States Tax Court and is legal counsel for a major real estate board. Phillips also is a member of the American Arbitration Association.

"I am familiar with the needs of labor and the desires of industry," Phillips said. He also declared he has no conflict of interest and will file open financial statements for voters. "I will represent all of the people of the 67th Assembly District," he added.

Four BMHS Youths Win Math Awards

Church to Ordain New Pastor This Afternoon

Leroy T. Griffith will be ordained to the ministry of the United Brethren Presbyterian Church in the United States this afternoon at St. Mark's Presbyterian Church in Lomita.

The Rev. Dean Collins, moderator of the Presbytery of Los Angeles and executive director of the Western and Pacific Regions of the American Bible Society, will officiate at the ceremony, to be held at 4:30.

Also participating in the ordination will be the Rev. Eldon Durham, pastor of St. Mark's; Mrs. Lottie Armstrong and Wayne Curtis, ruling elders of St. Mark's; the Rev. Charles Doak, Presbyterian minister at the University of Southern California; the Rev. Henry Green, pastor of the Rancho Bernardo Community Church, and the Rev. William Allender, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pasadena.

SPECIAL MUSIC will be sung by the Chancel Choir of St. Mark's. The United Presbyterian Women of St. Mark's will hold a reception for the newly ordained minister following the service.

Mr. Griffith, who has been called to serve as organizing pastor of the church in Chattanooga, Tenn., and as minister of the Newton Community Center, was born in San Pedro in 1938. He attended Lomita Elementary School, Narbonne High School, and Harbor College. He was graduated from Long Beach State in 1959 received the highest honor for service to the Departed in the 1965 civil rights march from Selma, Ala., to Montgomery, Ala.

While attending Long Beach State, he helped to organize the United Campus Christian Fellowship and served as the first chairman of the guest professor committee of the Associated Students.

He served as Master Councilor of the Lomita Chapter of the Order of DeMolay and
