He is survived by a daugh- ter, Myrtle Hester of Tor- ranee; two brothers, Frank of Newport Beach, Calif., and Lewis of Kansas; a sister, Ruth Tanner of Sacramento, Calif., and two grandchildren.

Refute 'God Is Dead'

In answer to the current allegation that "God is Dead," the Rev. Robert Pruett pastor of the Harbor Church, 1032 W. Pacific Coast Hwy., will speak at 11 a.m. service Sunday on "One Reason I Know God is Alive . . . He Speaks Today!"

'Inner Self' Sermon Topic

Sermon topic at the Church of Religious Science, 907 Knob Hill Ave., will be "Discover Your True Inner Self" Sunday, according to the Rev. Frank E. Richelieu, minister.

Representatives of state, county and municipal govern- ments will join business and labor leaders in eight South- west area cities Saturday to honor Assemblyman Clayton A. Dills (D-67th District) on his retirement after 24 years in the State Legislature.

The testimonial banquet will be held at the Cockatoo Inn in Hawthorne, accord- ing to Miss Rose Sarukian, din- ner committee chairman.

Included on the dinner committee are Congressman Cecil R. King, Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, Judge Ralph C. Dills, Judge Harry Shaffer, Mayor Chester Crane of Compton, Mayor Albert Isen of Torrance, Mayor William Czeleger of Redondo Beach, Mayor James Wedworth of Hawthorne, and former Ma- jor Jete Jensen of Gardena.

City councilmen serving on the committee are Robert Firstman of Gardena, Lionel B. Cade of Compton, J. A. Beasley of Torrance, Marvin Swartzwalter and William Coburn of Lawndale, and Hugh Cunningham, Robert Reeves, and Vic Zaccaglin of Hawthorne. Tickets, priced at $12.50 per person, may be ordered by calling OS 5-8393 or DA 3-7024.

they were no heavier than some other precincts."

COUNCILMEN, after hear- ing Jahn's protests, moved to deny all such challenges "in- sofar as we have jurisdic- tion" and seated the re- elected members.

Also certified were results of balloting on three charter amendments. Voters rejected two proposed amendments which would have increased salaries of councilmen and the mayor.

A third amendment which prohibits the exposure of fe- male breasts in public was approved. It must now be ap- proved by the State Legisla- ture before it becomes part of the city's charter.

Dudley Gray Rally to Draw More Than 400 on Saturday

More than 400 tickets have been sold for the Dudley Gray Red Carpet party ac- cording to the candidate's campaign headquarters.

The party is scheduled for 8 p.m., Saturday at 18355 S. Figueroa St., Gardena, and boasts two orchestras, con- tinuous entertainment, a bar- beque supper, and free cock- tails.

Gray is a candidate for the 32nd Senate District. His campaign in part has been leveled at getting insurance companies to assume their rightful share of state and local property taxes.

Funds derived from the $10 per person ticket sales will be used to further Gray's nomination as the Democrat- ic candidate for the 32nd District Senate seat.

Persons interested in ob- taining tickets for the party may contact Mitzi Ishigo at the campaign headquarters at 14527 S. Western Ave., Gar- dena.
