

SPRING IS "BUSTIN' OUT ALL OVER"

For eighteen consecutive springs, the South Bay Panhellenic Council has chosen the month of May for its "Pink Tea" for senior girls of the area high schools, who plan to attend a four-year college. At the tea, to be held May 1 at the Palos Verdes High School, seniors and their mothers will learn sorority rush and recommendation procedures and will see a parade of campus fashions. Pink blossoms and a pink tea table will carry out the theme. Here, from left, Mrs. James J. Jacobs, Jr., invitations chairman, and Mrs. Ralph H. Brubaker, name tags chairman, keep busy at their duties while Mrs. John M. Leeper, chairman of the Pink Tea, takes time out to enjoy a bit of "spring fever."

(Press-Herald Photo)

Past Presidents Honored

Beta Sigma Council Notes Founders Day

Ten jewels of memory—one for each year of its existence—will be celebrated by South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi at the local group's observance of the international social and cultural sorority's Founder's Day Saturday, April 23, at Los Verdes Country Club. The cocktail hour begins at 6:30 p.m. and the dinner at 7:30.

Ten presidents, who served the council since its founding on May 29, 1956, will be honored during the evening's program which also includes the installation of officers. Miss Martha Oehlerking, Torrance, who will be installed that evening as council president, is the banquet chairman.

Crowned with colorful crowns, fashioned by Preceptor Alpha Beta for the occasion, will be past presidents Mmes. William Garrison, Van Nuys; Blanche McCallum, Torrance; William Swisher, San Pedro; Lester Mayfield, Lawndale; Joseph Wolfe, Buena Park; Lola Abrams, Gardena; Andy Foster, Torrance; Bert Whitted, Gardena and James Barnhart, Gardena.

Installed with Miss Oehlerking will be Mmes. Gene Eby, Torrance, first vice-president; Ted Tonnholm, San Pedro, second vice-president; Charles Mochan, Torrance, recording secretary; Clarence Turner, Manhattan Beach, corresponding secretary; Robert Kane, Gardena, treasurer; Ray Slick, Torrance, civil defense officer; Charles Mel Lodge, sponsor. Mrs. Milton Ventress, Granada Hills, is the retiring president.

Award announcements will include the winner of the council's scrapbook contest and the naming of the respective chapters' "Girl of the Year."

Honored guests among the 215 expected to attend will be Mrs. Edwin Larson, Tustin, president of the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi; Miss Marion Fugard, president of Los Angeles City Council; and Mrs. Paul Nichols, Chatsworth, president of the San Fernando Valley Council.

Members and their guests will dance to the music of the Esquires following the banquet program.

Assisting Miss Oehlerking with arrangements for the traditional event are Miss Sandy Hobbs, Phi Gamma Sigma; Miss Dorothy Thompson, Phi Delta Phi; Mmes. Louis Brownlee, Alpha Alpha Omega; Jo Neil, Beta Alpha Nu; Ted Ronnhelm, Delta Chi; Charles Franklin, Mu Omicron Phi; Fred Harris, Omicron Phi; Jack Amberson, Rho Epsilon; Gene Eby, Rho Xi; Rhea Joy Luckey, Xi Theta Xi; Edgar Curtis, Xi Kappa Eta; Clarence Turner, Xi Zeta Lambda; and Carl Carlson, Xi Zeta Chi.

TRAVEL MEMORY'S LANE

A scrapbook filled with memory jewels is being enjoyed by these members of the Beta Sigma Phi South Bay Council, from left, Mrs. Frederick Harris, first vice president; Miss Martha Oehlerking, Founders Day chairman, who will also be installed as president; Mrs. Charles Franklin, and Mrs. Milton Ventress, retiring president. The group is planning its Founders Day dinner party to be held Saturday evening at the Los Verdes Country Club.

Torrance Graduate Studies in Greece

JULIE HENDERSON

Julie Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson of 2107 W. 183rd St., is studying in Delphi, Greece, under a University of California Study Abroad program.

Miss Henderson, a graduate student in drama at the University of California, Berkeley, is one of ten students selected for the program. A total of 40 American and European students were selected for the six-month course.

The University's Study Center for Classical Drama, newest "Campus" of the University's expanding international program, was initiated this year. Miss Henderson, a 1959 graduate of North High, is participating in the program under terms of a scholarship awarded by the Department of Drama at Berkeley.

She will return to the University to continue her studies under a three-year graduate fellowship awarded by the University. Miss Henderson received her bachelor's degree in drama and German from the University in 1964.

adjudicator and clinician throughout the West.

Mrs. Herbert J. Jones, president, will present a check for $5000 to the Philharmonic fund. Special guest Mrs. Draver Wilson, manager of women's volunteer committees of the Southern California Symphony Association, will accept the check. A large percentage of this amount was raised through the series of three Angel Luncheon Musicales held during the year and arranged by Mrs. Franklin Steinko, project chairman.

Mrs. William G. Farwell, hospitality chairman, is in charge of luncheon arrangements. Proceeds will endow a chair at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion of the Music Center in the name of the Peninsula Committee. Reservation may be made with Mrs. Paul Schwaighart.

Endowment Luncheon Set Thursday

The annual endowment luncheon meeting for members of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will be held on Thursday, April 21 at 10:30 a.m. at the Rolling Hills home of Mrs. John A. Tretheway, 15 Caballeros.

A program of choral music will be presented by the 17-voice El Camino College Chorale under the direction of Jane Skinner Hardester. Miss Loretta Nicassio, a graduate of the college, is accompanist for the group.

Mrs. Hardester, who organized the chorale four years ago, was choral director in the El Monte district for eight years. She received her MM degree at USC, subsequently serving on the music faculty there. She is active as guest conductor,

Panhellenic Council Presents

Annual Pink Tea for Seniors

South Bay Panhellenic Council, following a spring tradition, will present its annual "Pink Tea" on Sunday afternoon, May 1, from two until four o'clock in the multi-purpose room at the Palos Verdes High School.

Approximately 200 graduating South Bay senior girls, their mothers and high school counselors, will be honored at the event, which is given each year for prospective coeds, who plan to attend a four year college.

Greeting the guests will be Mmes. George Hammer, Phi Mu, president; John Leeper, Alpha Phi, tea chairman, and Richard Kincaid, files chairman.

The tea table will be covered with the traditional pink tulle tablecloth. The cloth is embossed with pearls, creating the Greek letters of each national sorority represented in the South Bay. Pink blossoms will be used as a centerpiece for this 18th annual affair.

Highlight of the afternoon will be a skit, "Sorority Secrets" given by coeds from different colleges in the Southern California area. The skit will explain the rush and recommendation procedures. Following this will be a fashion show by the coeds, showing suitable and appropriate clothes for campus and date wear.

Committee members for the Pink Tea include Mmes. Robert Lundstrom, table decorations; Samuel Wernli and James Jacobs, Alpha Delta, invitations; Marvin L. Barger and Robert Cooper, Delta Gamma, publicity; Thomas Bernard, Ed Farrell, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Richard Phillips and Brian Corbell, Kappa Kappa Gamma, reservations.

Others are Mmes. Herman Heaton, Delta Zeta, and Ralph Brubaker, Alpha Chi Omega, name tags; Rowe Prideaux, Delta Delta Delta, pin board and magazines; Ben Russell, Alpha Omicron Pi, fashion show; Skippy Phipps and Mrs. Henry Graef, Kappa Alpha Theta, tea table.

Any girl who is eligible may receive her invitation by calling Mrs. Richard Kincaid, files chairman, or Mmes. Thomas Bernard, Richard Phillips, Ed Farrell, or Brian Corbell, reservations chairmen.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

APRIL 20, 1966

B-1

B'nai B'rith Women Will

Seat New Officers Tonight

A colorful centerpiece of spring flowers will decorate the head-table at the installation dinner of the Southview Chapter, B'nai B'rith Women, to be held this evening at 7 p.m. at Filipone's restaurant, 4525 Calle Mayor.

Mrs. Rudi M. Hirsch of Los Angeles, past president of the council of B'nai B'rith Women District 4 will conduct the installation of the new 1966-67 officers. Assisting her will be Mrs. Doris Klein, past president by affiliation.

Mrs. Laurence Rodson will assume the presidency of the Southview Chapter. Serving with her will be Mmes. Bernard Yeskin, first vice president; Arnold Savader, second vice president; Jules Rensen, third vice president; Gene Berman, recording secretary; Selwyn Fettman, corresponding secretary.

Others are Mmes. Frank

Lelchook, financial secretary; Monroe Haas, treasurer; and Lester Sacks, counselor.

Board members to be installed are Mmes. Eugene Kushnick, Harry Goldfen, Alvin Fleigman, Hiram Feuerstein, Seymour Lampel, Harold Chertock, Leo Brodsky and Gordon Phillips.

The new president has served as first vice president; financial secretary and on the ways and means committee. She has been area chairman for the American Cancer Society for five years.

Prior to moving to Torrance Mrs. Rodson held an office in the Rosewood PTA in Los Angeles. Her two children attend Victor school. Mr. Rodson, a CPA, is past president of Torrance lodge, B'nai B'rith and was recently elected to the Southern California B'nai B'rith Council Executive Board.

NEW B'NAI B'RITH CHAPTER LEADERS

At a dinner meeting tonight at the Filipone restaurant, Southview Chapter B'nai B'rith Women will install new officers for the year 1966-67. Assuming the three top offices in the organization will be from left, Mmes. Jules Rensen, second vice president; Laurence Rodson, president, and Arnold Savader, second vice president. Mrs. Rudi M. Hirsch, past president of the district council, will conduct the installation.

(Press-Herald Photo)