

PLANNING NEW MEMBERS TEA

Club Notes Anniversary

Mothers To Be Feted

"Mother Will be Queen for a Day" when the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club hold their mother-daughter luncheon on Saturday, April 30, at Alondra Club, Lawndale, at 12 noon.

A twenty-minute program by the Twin Club Chorus with Mrs. Andy Meir directing, will highlight the eighth anniversary celebration Saturday. The club was founded on April 23, 1958. The purpose of the club is to benefit members by exchanging ideas, twin equipment and clothing and to promote a philanthropic interest in the community, particularly regarding children. Each guest attending will receive a beautiful flower.

Past presidents, who will be honored with special corsages, are Mmes. Walter Withrow, Torrance, 1958; W. R. Campbell, Torrance, 1960; John Adams, Tustin, 1961; Glenn Smith, San Pedro, 1962; Andy Meier, Corona, 1963; and Robert Jackson, Rolling Hills, 1964.

Special gifts will also be given to the youngest mother, the mother with the youngest set of twins, and the oldest grandmother.

St. Philomena Council Will Serve Lunch

Mrs. Samuel Consalvo, president of the St. Philomena Women's Council announces that the annual "Luncheon is Served" will be held on April 28 at the St. Philomena hall, 21900 Main St., Torrance. The luncheon will begin at 1 p.m. and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Martin Lydon, chairman of the ways and means committee or from any of the guild chairmen. Assisting Mrs. Lydon with the details of the luncheon will be Mmes. George Elftman, Allen Molgaard, Dale Thompson, Marvin Gregory, and Armando Brunette.

The representative of "Luncheon is Served," Margarette Volker, will head an interesting program, helpful to homemakers — consisting of a short talk on the sponsored items and distribution of gifts from sponsors. The entire program of luncheon, talk and distribution of gifts takes less than two hours.

'Fiesta Day' at May Co.

May Co. California is joining Eastman Kodak, Western Airlines, and the Mexican National Tourist Council in transporting south-of-the-border excitement to all 12 May Co. stores in the Los Angeles area. The "Mexican Playride" festivities began Thursday, April 14 and will run through Saturday, April 23.

A "Fiesta Day" is planned for nine of the May Co. Stores. The "Fiesta Day" at the May Co. South Bay will be held Saturday, April 23, from 12 noon until 3:30 p.m.

An informal modeling of Kodak fashions on the fashion floor, entertainment by an authentic Mariachi group in costume, a costumed dance team from Mexico City, and Mexican artisans, who will demonstrate their skills in leather tooling and the crafting of giant paper flowers and pinatas, are included in the day's program.

A total of eight vacation trips for two to Mexico City for eight days via Western Airlines Panjet will be awarded during the promotion.

Customers may register at all 12 May Co. stores in the May Co. World Travel Bureau or on the Fashion Floor.
