

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. G. S. Tanza

CRENSHAW
Mrs. Stan Ton, ways and means chairman, has announced the date of the Bob Baker Marionettes appearance at Crenshaw School as Saturday, April 30 at 2:30 p.m.

Election of PTA officers was held at the last meeting and the following were selected to fill a second term: Mmes. Robert Gee, president; Alvin Young, first vice president; Jack Hurt, recording secretary; Fred Wilkins, auditor, and in new positions are Mmes. Richard Gillham, second vice president; Robert Hayes, corresponding secretary; Paul Flint, historian; and Mr. Edward Wilson, treasurer. Installation of officers including the parliamentarian, Mrs. E. W. Barsley, will take place at the May meeting.

The April meeting will feature a music festival in which beginning and advanced bands will participate under direction of Mr. Jerry Andrews. Mrs. Meredith Anderson, music and art teacher, will present choral groups from the various grade levels. There will be a display of homemaking skills learned by the upper grade girls.

LINCOLN
The Linkettes Tri-Gra-Y, guided by Mrs. Earl Pitts, led the flag ceremony for the April 14 Lincoln PTA meeting called to order by Mrs. Ralph Gring. Curtis Foster presented the inspirational, followed by music selections provided by Lincoln lower and upper chorus, directed by teachers, Deanna Sutherland and Barbara Booth. Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Andrew Foster announced the "Junior Hi-Jinx" Variety Show will feature over 20 acts. The show will be "in the round" in the school cafeteria on Friday, April 29, at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

The association voted to support the new school bond issue on the June 7th ballot. Thirteen delegates will attend the 33rd District PTA conference in Santa Monica on April 22. Mrs. Gring will attend the Freshman-Senior Tea at North High School.

Les Breitenfeldt, district supervisor for the Torrance Recreation Department spoke on recreation for the entire family from tiny tots to senior citizens offered by the city of Torrance. The attendance banner was awarded Barbara Booth's 4-5 grades and hostesses for the evening were first grade mothers from Miss Leon's and Miss Hamlin's classes. The May 12 association meeting will be a fashion show and wood shop exhibit and the installation of new officers will take place at that time.

PHILIP MAGRUDER
Philip Magruder PTA executive board met on April 11 at the home of Mrs. Jack Fulton, president. Mmes. Fulton, Herman Redmerski, Elsie Inase, Tommy Campos, Jean Dasher are being recommended as delegates to the district conference on April 22 with Mrs. Terri Hashimoto and Mrs. Carl Bengston as alternates.

Mrs. Inase, dental health chairman, informed board members of the lack of funds situation of the Torrance Dental Health Committee and the many cases still uncared for. Magruder PTA will send ten dollars to help relieve the condition.

MEADOW PARK
Mrs. Fred Burdette has been elected president of Magruder PTA for the 1966-67 year. Other officers are Mmes. B. J. Mooneyham, Tom Akiyama and Ormel Duke, vice presidents; Neal McKenzie, recording secretary; Marvin Schiff, corresponding secretary; James Miller, treasurer; Roxy Battles, historian; Milton Reaser, auditor; and Mr. D. Boon Kirk, advisor.

Meadow Park PTA members will assist in the annual Spring Kindergarten Round-up April 25-26 and May 9-10.

NEWTON
Newton PTA will have Dr. Donald Wilson, member of the Torrance School Board, as guest speaker at the April 21 meeting at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. "Spotlight on Torrance Schools" will be the subject. Newton Science Fair exhibits will also be on display during the meeting and prizes will be awarded to winners at this time. The flag ceremony will be conducted by the Gra-Y Fireballs. Second grade mothers hosting will include Mmes. Don Avey, Alfred Faulkner and Spencer Wilens. Officers to serve next year are Mmes. Dottie Hurst, president; Robert Mills, Frank Adair, Roger Caukin, vice presidents; Aren Toth, recording secretary; L. E. Stephens, corresponding secretary; David Tanner, treasurer; Lamar Bonnette, historian; and Mr. Glen Webb, auditor.

PERRY
Perry School PTA will meet at 1:10 p.m. April 28. Theme of the meeting will be "Petticoat Junction" with a fashion show of clothes made by 8th grade girls in Mrs. Bernard McGuire's homemaking class. Mothers and daughters are invited to participate in modeling or displaying clothes. A Creative project written by 7th and 8th graders is a comedy based on "Gilligan's Island" and many of the cast are from Mrs. Robert Wokowsky's Basic Skills class. Several cartons of supplies, collected by the students for soldiers in Viet Nam, have been sent out. The newspapers for the Perry paper drive are to be brought to school on the morning of April 25.

SEASIDE
Seaside School will hold Open House on April 26 at 7:30 p.m. and it will be a combination Academic Fair and Public Schools Week Observance. Student exhibits will be on display in classrooms and first place winners will be displayed in the cafeteria. The PTA is sponsoring a bake sale in the cafeteria. At the March PTA meeting the following were elected to serve for the next year: Mmes. Edward Carroll, president; John Riddell, Tony Ramirez, James Banks, Lewis Stout, vice presidents; Frances Fox and John Bagalupi, teacher vice presidents; Robert Wagner, recording secretary; Joe Nelson, treasurer; Robert Maag, parliamentarian; and John Thayer, historian.

VICTOR
April 27 will be the date of the Victor School Open House and Science Fair with the PTA meeting taking place at 10 a.m. in the cafeteria. Mrs. Arnold Limberg, exhibits and posters chairman, will be featured and posters representing the unit's efforts for the year will be displayed. Cub Scout Pack 390C will lead the pledge of allegiance and Mrs. Gordon Kent, president, will conduct the meeting.

Parents are invited to visit the classroom during the school session from 10 a.m. on through the day. Coffee will be served in the cafeteria.

SOUTH HIGH
Installation of officers for the 1966-67 year will be the main order of business of the PTA Board members at the South High association May meeting. The luncheon meeting, traditional for the outgoing board, will be held at the Wayfarer's Inn Friday, May 6, at noon. Mrs. John D. Heglin, incoming PTA president has asked Mrs. Otto Willett to install.

In addition to Mrs. Heglin, the new officers are Mmes. Ralph Rector, Jack Goetz, William Kofahl and Mr. William Morgan, vice principal, vice presidents; Mmes. Roger Caukin, recording secretary; Charles John, corresponding secretary; Carl Campbell, treasurer; Wayne Crandall, historian; and Mrs. Donald Malone, auditor.
