'Barbershop Blackouts' To Feature Top Groups

Songs of yesteryear will be featured Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7, at the Mira Costa High School auditorium when the 1966 edition of "Barbershop Blackouts" is staged.

The show is being presented by the 100-man South Bay chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA). Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. for each performance.

Tickets, priced from $1.50 to $3 per person, may be ordered by mail from Tickets, Post Office Box 101, Gardena, or by telephone at DA 4-2786. Friday evening is the best night for tickets, a spokesman for the sponsoring group told the Press-Herald.

"We find that our wholesome, family-type shows bring out bigger crowds every year," Sterling Tallman told the Press-Herald.

Local quartets also will appear and the 60-man South Bay Chorus, directed by Dave Brown of Torrance, will present a selection of old songs.
