

FASHIONS, FLOWERS AND FURBELOWS

Members of the Women's Council of St. Catherine parish are busy with details of their 12th annual two-day fashion shows to be held May 17 and 18 at the new parish hall. Social hours have been planned for 7 p.m. both evenings with the fashion shows at 8. Decorations, prizes and refreshments are being discussed by, from left, Mmes. L. Higgins and L.

Gallegos, both of Gardena, decorations chairman; Mrs. C. Metzler, ways and means chairman for the Council; and Mmes. D. Buhman and A. Egnatuck, of Torrance, who are planning refreshments. Mrs. John Porter or Mrs. Ken Smith may be called for tickets.

(James Weber Photo)

St. Catherine Women's Council

Presents 'Cher Cher La Femme'

St. Catherine Council of Catholic Women will present its annual Fashion Show benefit on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, May 17 and 18 in the new St. Catherine Parish Hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd.

"Cher Cher La Femme" is the theme of the two-night event of which Mrs. Carl Metzler is serving as chairman with Mrs. James Copeland, co-chairman. A social hour is slated to begin at 7 p.m. both evenings with the fashion parade to be held at 8 p.m.

The newest in spring and summer fashions will be shown by a Rolling Hills salon with Mr. Elliott serving as commentator. The latest in hair fashions, done by a Torrance beauty firm, will be worn by the models. It has also been announced that maternity fashions will be shown from a South Bay Center shop.

During intermissions guests will be entertained with a novelty program prepared and directed by Mrs. Pat Fiorello and Mrs. Kenneth Edwards. A number of door prizes will be awarded during the shows including an upright freezer, side of beef, and portable television.

Others working enthusiastically on the event are ticket chairmen Mrs. John Porter and Mrs. Ken Schmitt. Seating will be by reservation only and tickets may be obtained by calling either of the chairmen.

Day at the Races

There Must Be A System!

To each his own—race track fans have "systems" galore for picking the winners and these two chairmen of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club "Day at the Races" have their own special kind of system . . . they visit the stable and "woo the pony."

Wilrad from Radkovich Farms gets undivided attention from Mrs. W. R. Campbell, and Mrs. Charles Luttrell, who are planning the "Day at the Races" for Tuesday, May 24.

Proceeds from the annual benefit will go to the Southwest Association for Retarded Children. A race will be named for the Mothers of Twins, who have invited husbands and friends to join them for a day of merriment at Hollywood Park.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 1, 1966

B-1

OFFICERS HOLD A POW-WOW

In Indian costumes, the new officers of the Auxiliary to the Harbor General Hospital hold an Indian ceremonial as the new president receives her bead necklace signifying her position as chief. Seated on the floor, from left, watching are Mmes. Michael Kendall, corresponding secretary; Harold Shield, second vice-president; and Ernest L. Neu, recording secretary. Mrs. L. David Heggie, first vice-president, presents the necklace to Mrs. William C. Hoag, who was installed for her second term as president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Harbor Hospital Auxiliary

Holds Installation Event

New officers of the Harbor General Hospital Auxiliary were installed yesterday at a luncheon at the Indian Village restaurant with Mrs. Robert Hodge, a member of the staff of the Chief of Patient Programs officiating.

In keeping with the restaurant's motif, Auxiliary hostesses and members of the new board were attired in Indian costumes. New board members wore leather head bands complete with beads and "stand-up" feathers. Entertainment was provided by the Las Vecinas choral group.

ed by the Las Vecinas choral group.

Mrs. William C. Hoag, Jr. was re-installed for her second term as president. Serving with her will be Mmes. L. David Heggie, first vice-president; Harold E. Shields, second vice president; Joseph Jay, third vice president; John C. Betts, treasurer; Michael J. Kendall, corresponding secretary; and Ernest Neu, recording secretary.

A social hour at 11:30 was followed by the luncheon at noon.

Engagement

The engagement of Miss Myra Lynn McCartney to Orval Jack Golphenew was announced at a dinner party given by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ottley Esker McCartney on Saturday evening, April 23, at their home, 3131 W. 178th St., Torrance.

MYRA MCCARTNEY

Parents of the benedict-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Orval Eugene Golphenew, 17408 Falda Ave., Torrance.

The wedding will take place July 16 at 2 o'clock at the First Christian Church in Torrance with the Rev. Milton Sippel officiating.

Both Miss McCartney and her fiancé are graduates of North High School.

The bride-elect, a psychology major at California State College at Los Angeles, will be graduated in June.

Mr. Golphenew will also be graduated from California State College in June, receiving a degree in police science. He is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

TO LEAD METHODIST WOMEN

Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church installed its new officers for the coming year at ceremonies at their luncheon meeting last Wednesday at the church. Assuming official duties were, from left, Mmes. Bruce Smith, treasurer; Eldon Fish, vice-president; Russell Paxton, president; Arthur Nagel, honorary president; and Leon Taylor, secretary.

(Press-Herald Photo)