

Church Committee Backs Lyman in Senate Campaign

Endorsement of state senatorial candidate, David K. Lyman, has been unanimously voted by the Committee on Christian Social Concerns of Torrance First Methodist Church.

The committee, which includes both of the Church's pastors, said it found Lyman "capable, energetic and a person of very high integrity." A member of the church since 1944, Lyman has been active in its Christian Social Concerns Committee and was Chairman of the Official Board for 1963. He is presently a member of the Official Board.

Root Names San Pedro Realtor Campaign Aide

Andrew Marincovich, general chairman of the Harry Root for Senator Campaign, today announced that Nick Trani, San Pedro realtor, has been appointed campaign co-ordinator for the Italian American Citizens in the 32nd Senatorial District.

Trani has long been active in the San Pedro and Harbor area civic affairs. He is past general chairman of the Fishermen's Fiesta and has served as Fiesta co-ordinator. He is the chairman of the Fishermen's Fiesta Boat Parade and was the first president and a charter member of the Italian Catholic Federation.

A charter member of the San Pedro Civilians, Trani also is past Grand Knight of the Knights of Columbus. He presently is serving on the board of directors of the Bay Harbor Hospital and of the Federated Italo-Americans of Southern California.

A native of San Pedro, Trani was one of four Californians invited to the White House by President Johnson to attend a luncheon with top cabinet officials and members of NATO.

Accepting his appointment, Trani said, "I have known Harry Root for five years and have worked with him on the Fishermen's Fiesta and other civic projects. I was very happy to learn that Harry had announced his intention to run for senator from our district. He is well known by the fishermen and well acquainted with their problems. He is a prominent Harbor Area attorney and sincere in his desire to work for the people of the 32nd Senatorial District. I feel that with his legal and civic experience he is the best man for the people of the 32nd District to send to Sacramento."

College Choir Here Sunday

The 38-voice choir from the Southern California College of Costa Mesa will present a sacred concert at the Walteria Assembly of God Church Sunday evening at 7, according to the Rev. Edward L. Hughes, pastor.

The choir, singing under the direction of Gerald R. Eskelin, chairman of the college's music department, will present a program that will include solos and small groups as well as choral anthems, spirituals, and gospel songs.

The public is being invited to the evening of sacred music, the Rev. Mr. Hughes said.
