'Hire a Veteran Week' Observance Set in City

"Hire a Veteran Week" will be observed this week in Torrance, as well as throughout Los Angeles County. Purpose of the annual observance is to remind employers of the contributions to the economy of qualified veterans. Employer, who have job vacancies may list those vacancies with the California State Employment Service in Torrance.

Veterans have priority of referral to jobs from the State Employment Service under terms of California law. Supervisor Kenneth Hahn joined Isen in urging employers to give veterans an opportunity to fill jobs. "Men and women who served our country during wartime acquired skills during their military service which have become one of our greatest natural resources," Hahn said. The local State Employment Service office is at 1016 Sartori Ave.
