

CLYDE FORD
Air Force Cadet

JOHN AUCKLAND
To Annapolis

Spartans Appointed To Service Schools

Two South High seniors this week were notified of their appointments to United States service academies.

Clyde Ford received a presidential appointment to the U. S. Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo., and John Auckland was named to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

Ford, the son of Major and Mrs. C. W. Ford of 4227 Calle Mayor, has lived in Turkey, Italy, and Germany, as well as throughout the United States. His father is a retired Air Force Career Officer.

President of South High chapter of the California

Scholarship Federation, Ford ranks 11th in a graduating class of 625 and has maintained a 3.821 grade point average (4.0 is a straight "A"). He is a member of the Order of Apollo, a school service club, the French Club, and the Speech Club. Ford plans a career in chemical engineering and research.

Auckland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace B. Auckland of 3916 W. 234th Place, is a basketball player at South High. He is a member of the Letterman's Club, the Boys' League.

During the fourth grade, Auckland lived in Newfoundland. His father is a 1942 graduate of the Naval Academy.

Youth Wins Top Award

Scott Hanlon, a North High senior, has been named president of the year in the Junior Achievement program and awarded a $2,000 college scholarship.

The awards will be presented tomorrow at the 12th annual Junior Achievement Awards banquet, to be held at the Hollywood Palladium.

Hanlon is the top winner in the annual Junior Achievement scholarship awards program. A total of 13 scholarships worth $10,000 will be awarded to high school students in the program.

Scouts Plan Dinner for Moms, Dads

Boy Scout Troop 242, sponsored by Christ the King Lutheran Church, will hold its fourth annual Mom and Dad Steak Dinner Saturday at the church Fellowship Hall, 2706 W. 182nd St.

The dinner was initiated several years ago to give parents of the Scouts an opportunity to meet together in an informal atmosphere.

Plans for the evening are

Young Musicians Schedule Concert

A concert of the Coleman Chamber Music audition winners will be presented at El Camino College Sunday evening at 7:30 under the sponsorship of the South Bay Chamber Music Society.

Young musicians scheduled to perform during the free concert include Madeline Schatz, 18, violinist; Peter Rejto, 17, cellist; Amira Lefkowitz, 15, pianist; David Singer, 17, clarinetist; Jeffrey Solow, 16, cellist; and Hans Boepple, pianist.

Club Plans Breakfast For Scouts

Torrance area Scout troops, the Hollywood Riviera Sportsman's Club, and Von's Markets will join forces Saturday to stage their seventh annual Pancake Breakfast.

Breakfast will be served from 8 a.m. until noon at Von's parking lot, Pacific Coast Highway and Calle Mayor, according to Darrell Holstrom, chairman of the event for the Sportsman's Club.

Profits from the breakfast will be shared between nine area Scout troops, Holstrom explained. Tickets for the breakfast may be purchased from any member of the nine South Torrance troops.

Sportsman's Club members will cook and serve the pancake breakfast, Holstrom explained. Tickets also may be purchased from members of the club and at the breakfast next Saturday.
