El Camino Duo Reign at Ball

Amid coronation splendor, El Camino College students Bob McConville and Wendy Rea received their crowns at this year's Emperor-Empress Ball, Friday evening at the Statler-Hilton Hotel.

The royal distinction represents the "highest honor El Camino can bestow upon a student for past services to school and community," Miss Henrietta C. Martin, dean of women, said.

Judges for this year's awards were selected from three groups—citizens from the college-district community, Miss Ruth Meinen of Inglewood, Joe Jeffers and Mrs. T. W. McLaughlin, both of Gardena; El Camino faculty members Dr. Albert Karr, Mrs. Marjorie Long, Willis Weber and Mrs. Grace Edwards, and students Linda Darnell, Paul Grutsis, Roxanne Mason and James Maxey.

and McConville recieved trophies from last year's Emperor and Empress, Don Aimar and Miss Diane Bryant. Dr. Stuart E. Marsee, president of El Camino College, crowned the 1966 emperor and empress. McConville is now serving as the president of the Associated Students of El Camino College. He has served as vice president of the Associated Students and as a first associate judge on the Student Court, and was acting chief justice in 1966.
