

TALKING OVER SHOW BUSINESS

"Drift Cloud," one of the participants in the Gamma Phi Beta benefit Horse Show to be held Sunday, May 29, at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills, gets the word on how to win a blue ribbon from these Gamma Phi alums as they visit the club. From the left, Mrs. Thomas Day, sponsor, looks on as Mrs. Samuel

Shirley, on the entry committee, shows a blue ribbon to Drift Cloud, assisted by Mrs. Charles Seppanen, publicity chairman. Mrs. Arnold Wood, show chairman, is riding the show horse. Proceeds will go to a scholarship fund for graduating seniors from South Bay High schools. (Press-Herald Photo)

Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae

Sponsor Benefit Horse Show

South Bay Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority will sponsor its second annual benefit Horse Show Sunday, May 29, at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills. The show is slated from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. Proceeds from the event will go towards scholarships for graduating high school seniors in the South Bay.

Co-chairmen of the show are Mrs. Arnold Woods of Waleria and Mrs. Bent Davies of Rolling Hills. Committee chairmen are Mmes. Robert Rice, Rolling Hills, food; Thomas Day, Rolling Hills, sponsors; Roger Blanchard, Hollywood Riviera, show secretary; Herbert Hauswald, Palos Verdes, decorations; Robert Jani, Palos Verdes, trophies; Richard Steiner, Hollywood Riviera, prizes; Charles Seppanen, Waleria, publicity.

The event will include English and Western Equitation; Hunters and Jumpers; English and Western Pleasure Horses; and Trail Horses.

Winners will receive a silver trophy and blue ribbon, with three streamered ribbons awarded through fifth place. Al Sherwin will serve as announcer; William Deitel, official photographer, and Al Kreman, official farrier.

William Harris, a leading trainer and prominent judge in California, will judge the 19 classes.

Approximately 500 spectators are expected to attend the all-day event. Refreshments will be available on the club grounds.

Participants in the Horse Show will be eligible for a high point award, he and his family will be flown via Western Airlines to San Diego for a stay at the Western Airlines Vacation Village.

During the noon intermission at the Horse Show, members of the Empty Saddle Club will entertain the spectators and exhibitors with a Cutting Horse demonstration. The club keeps several cutting horses and a herd of heifers for practicing their unique talent of working in the ring with cattle.

In the late afternoon an array of prizes, donated by local and metropolitan business firms, will be awarded.

Persons desiring more information regarding the benefit Horse Show may contact Mrs. Arnold Woods, show manager.

AT THE HELM

Activities of the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will be directed during the coming year by a slate of new officers installed last Thursday. Assuming the top official duties for the organization of newcomers to the area are, from left, front row, Mmes. John Martenson, president; Earl Schiring, program chairman. Standing, back row, Mmes. James Komar, membership; George Humphreys, reservations, and Jess Riley, ways and means. (Press-Herald Photo)

Welcome Wagon Club

Install's Officers

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club installed its new 1966-67 officers at a luncheon at the Redondo Elks Club last Thursday noon.

Assuming the presidency was Mrs. John Martenson. On her board are Mmes. Earl Schiring, James Komar, George Humphreys, and Jess Riley, vice-presidents; Richard Odgers, recording secretary; Thomas Dettlejohn, corresponding secretary; John Noel, treasurer; Alfred Sanders, historian, and John Lake, parliamentarian.

This club, composed of newcomers to the Torrance area, offers a variety of activities planned to interest all members.

Chairmanships for these activities were assumed by Mmes. Kenneth Klasener, Couples Club; Joseph Bowman, general chairman of duplicate bridge; David Smith, marathon bridge; Wayne Robison, day bridge; Geoffrey Hall, evening bridge; Clark Strubar, couples bridge.

Mrs. Dwight Hiatt is chairman of the "Trips for Kicks;" Mmes. Robert Sanders will head the welfare section; Joseph Fleming, publicity; Gary Dickinson, hospitality; Frank Nordhoff, assistant membership; Wayne Karfas, assistant reservations; David Sargent, decorations.

Mrs. Bruce Parks is drama chairman and Mrs. Bert Hall will head the civic projects. Other chairmen are Mmes. Joe Nelson, babysitting; Fredrick Emery, inspiration; Donald Fraleigh, bowling; Jesse Browning, president's advisor, and Donald Martin, hostess.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 18, 1966

LOOKING OVER THE PONIES

While at Hollywood Park selecting a reserved seat section in the upper clubhouse for the Las Vecinas "Day at the Races" on May 20, these two members, Mrs. Ray C. Hickman, left, ways and means chairman, and Mrs. Charles Hopkins, benefit chairman, take a side trip to the stables to size up the ponies. Proceeds will go to the PAR workshop conducted by the Southwest Association for Retarded Children.

Las Vecinas 'Day at Races' To Benefit PAR Workshop

Las Vecinas Women's Club will sponsor its third annual "Day at the Races" on Friday, May 20, at the Hollywood Park Race Track. Post time is 1:45 p.m.

Tickets being sold by the club are for seats in a reserved section of the upper clubhouse.

All proceeds from the event will go to the Southwest Association for Retarded Children PAR (Production and Rehabilitation) Workshop in Gardena.

The PAR Workshop Southwest is a cooperative effort between Exceptional Children's Foundation of Los Angeles and the Southwest Association.

To fulfill their goal of establishing lines of communications on activities of all the services, a mimeograph is greatly needed at the workshop.

Chairman for the "Day at the Races" is Mrs. Charles Hopkins. Serving on the committee with her are Mrs. William O'Neil and Mrs. J. Weller.

Tickets for the event may be obtained from an Las Vecinas member or by calling Mrs. Ray C. Hickman.

California's First Lady Here June 3

Mrs. Pat Brown, wife of the Governor of California, will visit the South Bay on Friday, June 3.

Plans for the visit of California's First Lady were completed at a committee meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. John Shidler in Hollywood Riviera. Mrs. Brown will tour Torrance, Wilmington and the Beach Cities.

On the committee planning "Mrs. Brown's Day" in the Greater South Bay are James Hall, Rolling Hills, Southwest Coordinator for Governor Brown; Warren Shearick, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Jeff Hare, Palos Verdes; Lois Hicks, Seaside; Barbara Liles, Torrance; Margaret Hemrick, Hawthorne; Sylvia Zanick, Wilmington, and Ray Wyman, San Pedro.

Others are Pat Gatzin, Hermosa; James Schuster, Redondo; Fred Benson and George Perkovich, representing the South Bay Bar Assn., and Mrs. William Keene, Manhattan Beach.

The time schedule and itinerary for the visit will be announced later.

Philharmonic Committee

Coffee for New Members

New members of the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra will be honored at an orientation coffee tomorrow at 10 a.m. at the home of hospitality chairman, Mrs. Jason Gale, 1548 Palos Verdes Drive West.

Mrs. Paul Schwaighart, hospitality chairman, will assist in welcoming guests.

Mrs. Peter C. Parfitt, newly-elected president, will acquaint new members with the by-laws. Retiring officers and committee chairmen will give summaries of their year's work.

New members will also hear reports by Mmes. Franklin Steinko and James C. Foley on the series of three Angel luncheon musicales, new to the Peninsula last year and being offered again next season. This is the committee's major fundraising project for the support of the Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mmes. Richard W. Park and Jason Gale, co-chairmen of special projects, will report on the committee's role in the gala champagne supper opening of Bullock's Del Amo scheduled for Sept. 7.

The Philharmonic committee will be one of five philanthropic organizations participating in the community-wide social event. Proceeds from tickets sold through the Peninsula committee will benefit the orchestra.

New members being honored are Mmes. Marshall Bailasky, Wesley Butterworth, Frederick H. Good, Leon M. Harris, Jack Jacobson, Remi A. Nadeau and Albert Stephenson, all of Palos Verdes Estates.

More are Mmes. William Campeau, Carl F. Fisher, H. P. McCarthy, William J. Muldoon and Stanley A. Zimmerman of Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Others are Mmes. Robert G. Bower, John Buchanan and H. W. Turney of Rolling Hills; Daniel B. Robinson and G. Roger Smith, Jr. of Rolling Hills Estates; John S. Grischy and Arthur G. Kiel of Portuguese Bend and Paul Yates of Manhattan Beach.