

ATTORNEYS MEET . . . Fred W. Benson (left), a Redondo Beach attorney and president of the South Bay Bar Association, talks with Edward W. Kuhn, president of the American Bar Association, and Glendon Tremaine, president of the Los Angeles County Bar Association, during a recent meeting of the county group. Benson and the presidents of 13 other local bar groups were honored at the meeting. They will head local observances of Law Day, May 1.

HONOR SCROLL . . . Supervisor Kenneth Hahn (right) presents an honor scroll to Captain Errett Greer, commander of the South Los Angeles headquarters of the California Highway Patrol. Captain Greer, who began his career as a law enforcement officer on his 21st birthday, is retiring this month after 35 years of service.

Couples Club to Sponsor Pot-Luck Dinner Program

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Henderson, representing the World Brotherhood Exchange and established a "Radio Voice of the Gospel." A tape of the "Radio Voice" broadcast will be played for those attending the Saturday meeting, according to Mrs. Mitchell S. Yelich, publicity director for the sponsoring club.

The Hendersons spent the summer of 1962 in Madagascar for the World Brotherhood Exchange and established a "Radio Voice of the Gospel."
