

A CAMPAIGN RESPITE . . . California Real Estate Commissioner Milton Gordon, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State, looks at Press-Herald electronic engraving console with Mrs. John Barbarine, who is heading up his Torrance campaign efforts. Gordon hopes to unseat incumbent Frank Jordan in the post he and his father have held for half a century.

A Penny for Your Thoughts

By HAL FISHER

When we play host and have visitors into our homes we hope that they will take notice of the things we prize and take away with them a good impression. As Americans we can take the same interest in what impresses foreign visitors to our country. I asked some of the students who have attended school in Torrance this year under the auspices of the American Field Service:

"Which of the places that you have visited in America impressed you most?"

Erika Stotz, Chile:

"California's resort town, Carmel. It is a very pretty little town in a very beautiful area. I also liked Arizona with the Grand Canyon and its wooded areas."

Yuko Shiganami, Japan:

"The northeastern part of the United States during the spring. Especially Philadelphia, with all its tree-lined streets and parks. I liked the parks where you can see birds in the trees and squirrels and chipmunks playing on the grass."

Anna Maria Bezerra, Brazil:

"I liked San Francisco best, because the bay and the way the city comes right down to the water, and is built on hills reminded me much of Rio de Janeiro. I also liked Disneyland."

Muratha (Roy) Sriwong, Thailand:

"I was much impressed by my trip to the United Nations in New York City. It was very impressive to see people from many different lands working together to solve their problems. In California I liked Disneyland and I will miss going to the beach."

Evangelical Conference To Open in Sacramento

The Rev. Walter M. Stanton, pastor of Central Evangelical United Brethren Church left this week with Mr. W. E. Bowen church delegate to attend the California Annual Conference being held in Sacramento.

The Annual Conference will open Thursday, at 10 a.m. following which the Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed. Election of a new Conference Superintendent will be the outstanding feature of the afternoon.

The first ballot for General Conference delegates and the presentation of Church Union and discussion will take place Friday.

Conference business will conclude Saturday Afternoon with a banquet honoring Dr. and Mrs. Paul Miller in the evening.

Sunday, at 9:30 a.m. Bishop Sparks will conduct a service of ordination and lead in the worship service which will bring the Conference to its conclusion.

The Rev. Robert Garr, chaplain of the Los Angeles Fire Department, will speak Sunday, May 29th, in the absence of the pastor. Sunday evening, Carl Pisel, songleader with Leah Stanton, pianist, will conduct a songfest with the audience participating in the game "Name That Tune."

Security Bank introduces an extraordinary new service in banking.

The Guaranteed Check

Now Security First National Bank will guarantee personal checks up to $100.00. This is a completely new and unique service in banking. It means greater protection than ever before for businessmen who accept checks, and added convenience for people who write them. It is available only at Security Bank.

Security Bank guarantees personal checks up to $100.00 written by customers presenting this Card.

The new Check Guarantee Card has one principal purpose: To help our customers cash personal checks whenever this is a problem.

To do this, we guarantee to the retailer (and other business and professional people) that payment will be made on personal checks by Security Bank customers who present the Check Guarantee Card.

The Card is not a credit card in any sense of the word. It is simply a card that guarantees a Security Bank personal check.

All checks guaranteed, in the way described on the Card, are as good as cash at any branch of Security Bank.

How to get it.
To get a Check Guarantee Card, you naturally have to have a checking account at Security Bank. And you must also qualify for Ready Reserve Account.

This means that Security Bank puts a cash reserve behind your checks. Ready Reserve Account provides you with convenient personal credit to use when and if you need it.

Think of it this way: The Check Guarantee Card plus Ready Reserve Account add up to the most usable, flexible checking account offered by any bank, anywhere.

Use these services only as you wish. You can use either, neither or both of these services with your personal checking account. The choice is strictly yours.

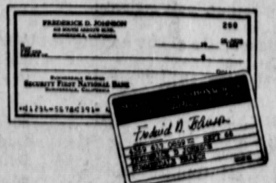

Use the Check Guarantee Card as much as you like at no additional cost. If you draw on your Ready Reserve Account, you pay interest only on the balance outstanding, calculated on a monthly basis.

Apply now for a Check Guarantee Card.

You can get a Check Guarantee Card by opening a personal checking account at any branch of Security Bank and by qualifying for a Ready Reserve Account. Approved credit is all you need. Customers of Security Bank who already have Ready Reserve Account will get the Check Guarantee Card automatically by mail.

A special note to businessmen.
This service costs you nothing. You will not be asked to sign an agreement - nor to buy, maintain or use any special equipment. There is no paper work involved, no credit list to maintain. No money tied up in a credit relationship with our customers.

Handling a Check Guarantee Card is as simple as using a driver's license for identification. All you do is write on the back of the check the number and expiration date of the Check Guarantee Card. The customer presenting the Card must also sign the check in your presence to verify his signature as it appears on the Card. That's all there is to it.
