

Festival of Arts Prize Winners Receive Awards

Two prizes were awarded and two scholarships were announced at the South Bay-Torrance Symphony's "May Festival of Arts" in the fields of music and art.

Art exhibit chairmen Lillian Rae and Edna Hinkel took a vote during all three days of the Festival to determine by popular vote

Local Student On Winning Cal Poly Team

Bert Zwaagstra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Zwaagstra of 22420 Ocean, was a member of the championship team in a national dairy cattle judging contest which was judged at Ft. Atkinson, Wis.

A dairy husbandry major at California State Polytechnic College, San Luis Obispo, Zwaagstra and other members of his team competed with 183 teams from 35 states and Canada.

FRATERNITY PRINCESS

Lillian Buffalo, sophomore at Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C., was one of the four princesses elected to attend the Sweetheart of Alpha Sigma Pi. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony B. Buffalo of 2203 1/2 Torrance Blvd. A graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, Miss Buffalo attended El Camino College.

which pictures were the most admired in the professional field and another in the student division. Though only one vote for each class was allowed to each viewer, hundreds of votes were cast and many pictures received votes in this excellent exhibit.

In the professional class the $25 prize was awarded to the painting "Redondo" by Beth Leffler, shown by the South Bay Art Association. It is a brilliant scene depicting the new water-front.

In the Junior group, the $10 prize was won by "House in the Sunset," painted by Mary Watson, a pupil of M. A. Anderson, of Redondo Union High School.

AT THE Symphony-Ballet program on Saturday evening and at the Youth Concert on Sunday afternoon the music scholarships were announced.

There will be a scholarship in piano which is in memory of Viola Niland, late secretary of the South Bay-Torrance Symphony and one of the greatest musical leaders and benefactors of the beach area. Also there will be a scholarship in all orchestral instruments, in memory of the former librarian of the South Bay Symphony, George Hiltz. Both of these scholarships already amount to well over $100 each and donations are still being accepted. Winners of these scholarships will be presented at the Symphony's September or October concert.

In addition, Miss Billyanna

Niland has offered an annual scholarship of $100 to be given each year beginning next year. This will also be in honor of her mother, Viola Niland.

For entry blanks or information concerning these scholarships write to the South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony Orchestra, Inc., 1617 Via Montemar, Palos Verdes Estates, Calif. 90274.
