

State's First Lady Here Friday

MRS. PAT BROWN
Wife of California Governor

Will Tour EM Building

Mrs. Pat Brown, wife of the Governor of California, is scheduled to visit Torrance next Friday morning at 10:40. She will tour the Educational Materials Building, at 2332 Plaza Del Amo. Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District, will be Mrs. Brown's host for the tour and will introduce her to the staff.

Mrs. Brown's Day in the Greater South Bay will begin when she visits the National Maritime Hall, 385 W. 18th St., San Pedro at 9:30 a.m., where she will meet union leaders and Mothers Club representatives.

After her Torrance visit, she will go to Hermosa Beach where she will present a tree from the South Bay Botanical Gardens to the Hermosa Garden Club.

Hermosa Friends of the Library will receive a rare document from California's First Lady, who is also scheduled to present an art scholarship during an art show to be staged by the South Bay Art Assn.

Refreshments and an art exhibit will highlight the Hermosa Valley Park stop.

Many public officials of the Beach cities and Chambers of Commerce will be present for Mrs. Brown's visit. The committee, making arrangements for the visit of the Governor's wife, extends an invitation to the public to join the First Lady as she tours the South Bay.

Reveal Poetry Winners

Winners in the annual Poetry Contest for children of Nativity School, Torrance and St. Margaret Mary's School, Lomita, sponsored by Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, were announced recently by Mrs. Harry Hamilton, contest chairman.

Poems, all with a religious theme, were judged in two divisions with awards made accordingly.

Winners in the first division, including fourth, fifth and sixth grades, were: Michael Williams, Nativity, first place; Bryant Bushling, St. Margaret Mary, second place; Mary Bogardue, St. Margaret Mary, third place.

Division two, grades seven and eight, winners were: Joan Hauck, Nativity, first place; Charlene Noone, Nativity, second place; Scott Salisbury, St. Margaret Mary, third place.

The prize winning poems were read by the children preceding the court's regular monthly business meeting. Parents and the Sisters from both schools were also guests of the court. Awards were presented by Mrs. Hamilton, followed by refreshments.

Hostesses for the evening were Mmes. Robert Klaesges, chairman; Ralph Sullivan, co-chairman; James McGovern, Victor Spielman, William Cockran, Thomas Murphy and Paul DeCuir.

Will Study In Norway

Miss Karen E. Dobis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Hagner, 17026 Cordary Ave., Torrance, was awarded a $500 scholarship by the Sons of Norway, Sixth District, for study at the International Summer School at the University of Oslo.

The local girl will sail on the Oslofjord with 126 other students, from New York on June 16 to begin classes on June 25.

Karen is a graduate of North High school and attended El Camino for two years. She is now a student at UCLA. She plans to finish her college education at Long Beach State beginning in September.

Miss Dobis was president of the Lutheran Club at El Camino for one year and was a talent winner in the Sons of Norway Sixth District.

After completing her studies at Oslo University, she will visit relatives in Sweden and Denmark and travel through Spain, France, Italy and Germany, returning home by plane on Sept. 11.

St. Catherine CDA Court

Elects 1966-67 Officers

Mrs. Louie Derouin was elected to the office of Grand Regent of Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, at the regular May business meeting held recently in Nativity Parish Annex.

A native daughter, Mrs. Derouin now resides in Lomita. She has served the local court as vice regent for the past year, prior to which she held the office of treasurer for two years and the office of trustee for three years. Past chairmanships held by the new regent include reception of new members, social welfare, program and card parties. Two years as president of the CDA Bowling League is also among her accomplishments.

Mr. Derouin is a member of St. Gerard Council, Knights of Columbus. The couple are members of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Remaining in office for one year will be Mrs. J. W. Crew and Mrs. Laurence Derouin, one year trustees.

Formal installation of officers will take place Thursday, June 2, at Nativity Parish Annex. The June business meeting will be held June 16 at which time Mrs. Derouin will introduce the new chairmen for the coming year.

Like Mother, Like Daughter With New York City Ballet Co.

Miss Carolyn Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peterson, 17508 Van Ness, Torrance, began rehearsals last Monday morning with the New York Ballet Co. In July, she will dance with the company in Saratoga and next fall will tour Canada. Next year, the troupe will tour England and Japan.

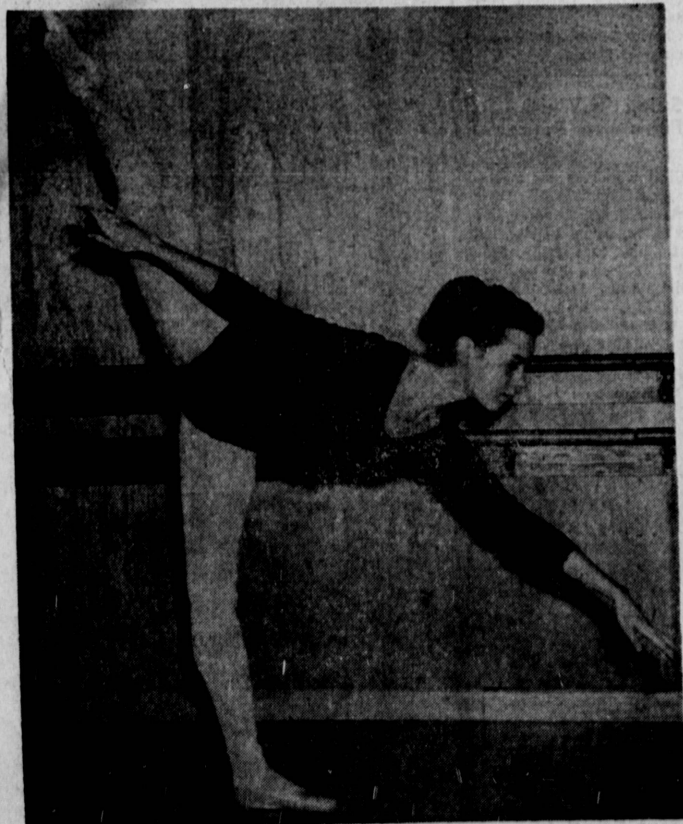

The local ballerina telephoned her parents last Saturday from New York telling them that she had been accepted by the famous ballet company for whom her mother was soloist from 1937 to 1948, travelling the United States, Canada and South America.

Mrs. Peterson, who owns a School of Ballet at 1938 W. 169th St., Gardena, began teaching Carolyn when she was six-years-old.

In February this year, Carolyn won a Ford Foundation Scholarship.

In March 1965, she was signed by the newly-formed Ballet Co. of Los Angeles and performed at the Music Center and during the summer at the Greek Theater.

The ballerina is a graduate of North High School and attended UCLA.
