

Spartans Speak

By Tim Chang

The ASB election results have been tabulated by the California Scholarship Federation, and the results announced. Next year's Student Council will have an imperfect balance of nine seniors, five juniors, two sophomores, and a lone freshman. I will now make a list of the winning candidates, thereby saving me the trouble of writing an article:

Mike Lewis, ASB president; Jeff Marsee, vice president; Shawnee Keener, commissioner of records; Carla Huyssen, corresponding secretary; Tammy Kuchenbecker, commissioner of pep; Marcia Vore, commissioner of publicity; Gary Jung, commissioner of student control;

Terry Dorn, commissioner of public relations; Mike Farber, commissioner of athletics; Libby Hovey, club coordinator; Nancy Vogl, commissioner of activities; Gary Farmer, sophomore president; Mike Maxsenti, junior president; Steve Stulck, senior president; Trudy Fitzpatrick, Girls' League president; and Mike Levanas, Boys' League president. In September, the freshman president will be elected.

The second annual Spartan Laurels Banquet will be held tomorrow evening in the gymnasium. Its purpose is to give special recognition in the fields of art, drama, English, foreign language, mathematics, science, physical fitness, homemaking, industrial arts, social science, and several other worthy endeavors. From each area will be selected one outstanding student and three runners-up. The 5,231 nominees and their parents are all invited.

Would you believe it? The seniors are graduating next week. Well, would you believe the week after next? Anyhow, the year is drawing to a close and soon summer will be upon us. At that time, the space normally occupied by this column will be filled with something of redeeming value and social importance.

CLASSROOM IN CAFETERIA... Thirty-two students in Mrs. Phyllis Walker's combination second-third grade class at Edison Elementary School have been crowded into a portion of the cafeteria due to classroom shortage. Observing the class are Mrs. Kenneth Watts, member of the Board of Education, and Dr. Frank Tyrrell, principal. The board of education is unanimously urging passage of school bonds for classroom construction, Proposition FF, in the June 7 elections.

TOTE DAT BARGE... YMCA campers put all their sweat and toil into a rousing tug-o-war staged at last year's camping trip to Little Green Valley. There is still plenty of room for sign-ups to go on this year's trip to the same spot.

Little Green Valley Site of YMCA Camp

June 18-25 are the dates for a fulfilled week for boys 9-12 years in the Torrance Family YMCA at Camp Little Green Valley. Art Sears, the camp director stated, "This first full session of camp will have the boys taking part in an exciting week of swimming, hiking, burro riding, making crafts, worshipping, playing, and attending campfires in one of the finest YMCA camps in the mountains."

Little Green Valley is situated high above Green Valley Lake on the highway from Arrowhead to Big Bear, not too far from Snow Valley, where the boys on hike day will ride the giant ski lift to the summit.

During the week the boys will be in adirondak type cabins with seven other friends and a counselor. The camp has an olympic size pool, a large meadow, 20 cabins, a modern dining hall, well equipped craft lodge, burros to ride, and many interesting hiking trails.
