

Blast Off New Year For Junior Woman's Club

"Universal Harmony" is their 1967 goal and these new officers of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, who were installed at a dinner Saturday evening at the Plush Horse, are sending their year "into orbit" planning to serve not only their community but faraway places. In the picture at the right, Mrs. David Wade, president, center, shows some of her officers how to send the club into orbit. Encircling Mrs. Wade are, from left, Mmes. Gordon Gmur, auditor; Tony Borges, recording secretary; Carl

Gala Mansion Belle Cruise To End Madrecitas Season

Las Madrecitas, Auxiliary to the Crippled Children's Guild of the Orthopaedic Hospital, has planned a gala social evening for its last fund-raising event of this season.

The event will be Husbands' Night for the Auxiliary and members joined by their husbands will set sail next Sunday evening, June 5, aboard the Mansion Belle from Marina Del Rey.

Mrs. David Congleton, president, announces that nothing but fun has been planned for the evening. The Mansion Belle will depart at 5 p.m. and return to shore at 10 p.m.

Seventeen new Las Madrecitas members and their husbands will be introduced socially to the other club members.

Sightseeing, singing and dancing are on the agenda for the five-hour cruise. Jay Lacey's orchestra will provide the music for dancing. A player piano will supply the musical background for the cruisers who prefer to sing-along. Hot and cold hors d'oeuvres will be served during the entire cruise.

Proceeds from the Mansion Belle party and cruise will go towards Las Madrecitas' pledge to furnish wards at the hospital.

Mrs. Arthur Zygmunt is general chairman of the event. Her co-chairman is Mrs. John Kenny. Mrs. Ralph Garland is handling invitations, Mrs. Frank Watts, tickets; and Mrs. Clarence Burke, publicity.

Las Madrecitas' next major fund raising event will be held next fall when the auxiliary will participate in the Premiere Benefit Opening of the new Bullock's store in Torrance.

Mrs. Pat Brown to Make Presentations at Show

Mrs. Pat Brown, wife of the Governor of California will officiate at three ceremonies next Friday morning at 11:30 at the South Bay Arts Association Exhibit at the Hermosa Valley Park Gould Lane and Valley Dr.

The Art Show is being directed by the Honorable Pat Gazin, ex-mayor of Hermosa Beach and council member, who will serve as hostess to California's First Lady.

An award, to be added to the Art Assn.'s scholarship fund, will be presented to Robert Fagenstrom, the association's president, by Mrs. Brown.

The Governor's wife will also dedicate a California native sycamore tree in the Theodore Payne Memorial Garden of native plantings. The response at the dedication will be made by Mrs. David Fields, president of the Hermosa Garden Club.

Also on her visit to the Art Show, Mrs. Brown will present a rare document on California history to the Hermosa Friends of the Library. The volume will be accepted by Mrs. Herbert C. Corben, president.

The public is invited to attend the ceremonies as well as the art show which opens at 10:30 a.m.

DOWN TO THE SHIPS

Ralph Garland, right, and Frank Connelly, two of the honor guests, are being told by Mrs. Garland that this small tanker is not the kind of a ship on which they will spend an evening of gaiety when Las Madrecitas Auxiliary stages its Husbands' Night party next Sunday evening. The party ship is the Mansion Belle and will set sail from Marina Del Rey at 5 p.m., returning at 10 p.m. Proceeds from the benefit go to the Orthopaedic Hospital. (Press-Herald Photo)
