GET THEM WHILE THEY'RE HOT

Aroma of pancakes and sausage will attract customers when the American Little League Mothers stage a benefit breakfast Saturday morning at the market, 501 S. Van Ness, beginning at 8 p.m. In an activity preview, from left: Mmes. Robert Holman and William Irgens, serving as waitresses, wait with their plates as Mrs. Jerry Bemis mixes the batter, and Mel Winter, cook, has the gridle ready. Door prizes will be given during the breakfast. American Little Leaguers, who will benefit, are selling tickets. (Press-Herald Photo)

Sweet Adelines Unit Installs at Dinner

L. A. South Towns Chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., held their annual installation dinner at a Los Angeles restaurant on Saturday, May 21. Approximately 100 Sweet Adelines, guests, and husbands turned out for this gala affair.

Entertainment was provided by the Valentines, a talented Sweet Adelines quartet from Melody Belles, Garden Grove and Fullerton chapters, who recently placed 7th in the Regional Competition.

After the installation ceremonies, Mrs. William Street, founder and director of the chapter, presented the M.O.S.T. (Most Outstanding Service Trophy) to two Sweet Adelines, Mrs. Sterling Tallman and Mrs. Renee Fernandez, both of Torrance.

Mrs. Tallman is a native of Parkersburg, West Virginia. She is the mother of two children, one son in the Air Force and a daughter in her second year at El Camino College. Her husband is an assistant manager at North American Space and Information Division in Downey. Mrs. Tallman is a
