

Volunteers Elect New Directors

Annual luncheon of the Volunteer Bureau South Bay-Harbor was held at the home of Mrs. Manley Natland in Rolling Hills. The luncheon was held in honor of the newly-elected members of the Board of Directors and the newly-elected officers.

The distinguished residents of the South Bay-Harbor area elected to the Board are: Mrs. Joseph Merino of Wilmington, Mr. Lawrence Di Carlo of San Pedro, Mr. Kenton Musgrave of Palos Verdes, Mrs. Carl Messmer of Torrance, Mr. William Belding of Palos Verdes, Mrs. Herbert Coils of San Pedro, Mrs. James Welsh of Rolling Hills, and Mrs. John Woodhull of Redondo Beach.

The newly-elected officers of the board are: Mrs. Manley Natland, president; Mr. Ben L. ("Ted") Bear, Jr., first vice president; Mrs. Andrew Shaw, second vice president; Mrs. James Hoakland, recording secretary; Mr. Kenton Musgrave, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Walton Reid, treasurer. The Volunteer Bureau South Bay-Harbor is in its third year of operation. The response of volunteers serving their community through the Bureau has more than doubled each year serving more than 36 local agencies.

Fall Bazaar Planned by Committee

Committee for the annual St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Bazaar, to be staged the first week in November, held its first meeting Saturday morning at the home of Mrs. Hugh Percy, 1230 Acacia Ave.

Mrs. Percy and her co-hostess, Mrs. Iris Galleger, served a brunch after which a business meeting was held. The group planned to carry out a French motif at the bazaar and sidewalk cafes and shops will be featured.

Members present with the two hostesses were Mmes. D. A. Murphy, Betty Harris, Jean Davis, Lavona Williamson, Keith Pischel, and Anna Sandstrom.

Meets Monday

Attention All PTA Unit Press Chairmen

All news releases from individual PTA units must be submitted to Mrs. Ralph Gring, 16622 Haas Ave., Gardena, who succeeds Mrs. Laurie Tanza, who compiled and edited the Torrance PTA Council column for the Press-Herald during the past year. Deadline for the PTA Column, which is published in the Sunday Press-Herald, is Wednesday morning, therefore all unit reports should be turned in to Mrs. Gring not later than the previous Monday.

TORRANCE COUNCIL

Mrs. Perry Baker, recently installed president of Torrance Council of Parents and Teachers, Inc., presided at her first meeting of the year on Wednesday, June 1 in the Torrance Recreation Center.

Council officers, chairmen and 37 unit presidents attended. Mrs. Baker asked for ratification of chairmen of her board at this meeting, and announcements of future council activities were made. Various officers and chairmen attended the District Workshop in Norwalk-La Mirada on May 17 where ideas and procedures were exchanged.

On May 19 a luncheon for out-going council officers was held with 27 attending.

CALLE MAYOR

Calle Mayor PTA will present its "Final Score" Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria. The annual spring musical program, featuring the student chorus and band, directed by David Sherman, will also spotlight several solo performances.

Selections by pianists Debbie Koppensteiner and Craig Fisher, Billy Roberts on the accordion, Janet Hattiestad on the flute, and a tap dance by Steve Newell, will be part of the program which will follow a brief business meeting.

Outgoing President Mrs. Hollis Wilson, will assist in dedication of Calle Mayor's new flag and will present a unique historian's report aided by students. She will also welcome Mrs. Tom Pryor, incoming PTA President. Refreshments will be served by room mothers from Mrs. Jacobowsky's class and the classes of Miss Collin and Miss Christensen.

CASIMIR

Fathers Night was observed by the Casimir PTA on May 25 beginning with an Open House.

During the meeting, Mrs. Vernon Terry installed the following officers, Mmes Morton Bassin, president; Paul Fullmer, Gene Fister, Jack Devitian, and Mr. Edwin Brown, vice-presidents; Henry Bell, recording secretary; Louis Rock, corresponding secretary; Thomas Bezdeka, treasurer; Duane Pockrandt, auditor; Melvin Sanders, historian; and Lynn Thompson, parliamentarian. Lyman Tolman, industrial arts teacher, presented the shop program by the 7th and 8th grade boys.

Mrs. Tokimi Ono, record book chairman, and Mrs. Louis Rock, publicity chairman, were featured. Mrs. Tokimi presented Mrs. Farley, retiring president, with her year book. Mrs. Daniel Charles and Mrs. George Wiells, kindergarten mothers were hostesses.

CRENSHAW

Final board meeting of the year was held on May 13 in the Crenshaw cafeteria with Mrs. Robert Gee, presiding. She discussed issues presented at the state convention. The board voted to make a contribution to Torrance PTA Council scholarship fund in the name of Mr. Howard Bales and Mr. Gene O'Leary, long-time custodians at Crenshaw, for their constant cooperation at numerous PTA functions. A certificate of appreciation was presented them at the general association meeting.

Mrs. James Rasnick, safety chairman, gave a report on the recent bicycle safety check held in cooperation with the Torrance Police and Fire Dept. Forty three licenses were issued and several hundred students competed in trials.

The following first place winners will compete in the city finals: Kristi Ringer, Nace Beneveniste, Sharon Young, Robert Owen, Deborah Bushong, Gary Albert and Larry Meseke. Mrs. Stan Ton, ways and means chairman, reported that the showing of the Bob Baker Marionettes was a complete sell-out. Proceeds from the ticket sale will be used to purchase material to outfit the Crenshaw Choral groups in identical vests, which will be made by several board members.

Mrs. Gee entertained at a "Thank You" luncheon in honor of her board on May 27 at the home of Mrs. Sam Martelaro.

HOWARD WOOD

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka installed the new officers at the Howard Wood PTA meeting May 16. They are Mmes Thomas Irvine, president; Bill Wood, William Brown, Bill Lorenz, vice presidents; Larry Gimenez, recording secretary; Dave Jones, corresponding secretary; Patrick Barrera, treasurer; Joe Ankerberg, auditor; Robert Stefanko, historian; Paul Crossman, parliamentarian; and Mr. Donald Mullaney, faculty advisor.

Historian's report was given by Mrs. Stefanko. On the program were Judy Jackson, performing a Hula; Jean Steibek and her Hawaiian dancers; and Aquila Quilaot giving piano selections. Proceeds from the 8th grade bake sale were marked for the graduation party.

The new PTA board will meet in the school cafeteria on June 6 at 10 a.m. Those interested in joining the new Howard Wood PTA Bowling League may call Mrs. Jack Musil.

FOR FRESHMAN MOTHERS

'Freeway Driving' Topic For Hospital Auxiliary

"Freeway Driving Tactics," a film, will be shown by Emmett G. Lindquist; and also slides and a talk on "Reconstruction Surgery for Facial Injuries Due to Automobile Accidents" will be given by John E. Williams, M.D. at the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary meeting on Wednesday, June 8 at 8 p.m. in the doctors' dining room of the hospital in Torrance.

Mr. Lindquist is safety consultant for the Automobile Club of Southern California and has been with that organization since 1947. The film, which was produced by Charles Cahill & Associates, gives freeway pointers advocated by experts. These include entrances, lane changes, major emphasis on the dangers of following closely, reaction time, what to do in emergency. It combines live action vignettes, animation, viewer self-test sequence and a staged collision to illustrate reaction time.

Dr. Williams of Inglewood, a plastic surgeon who specializes in reconstructive surgery, will show slides of actual case histories demonstrating what can be done to help people disfigured by collisions.
