

Named Metro Coach of Year

Wallace "Wally" Kincaid, Cerritos College baseball coach, has been named recipient of the James K. Cossman "Coach of the Year" award for 1965-66 in the Metropolitan Conference. Formal announcement of the award was made by William W. Russell, commissioner of the conference. There are six criteria for the award, according to Russell. They include (1) inspiration to young men; (2) leadership; (3) integrity; (4) sportsmanship; (5) competence as a coach. Not necessarily a winner, but one who best utilizes his material; (6) coaching in one or more Metropolitan Conference competitive sports. In nine years at the helm of the Cerritos baseball team, Kincaid has coached the Falcons to a 272-69 overall record and 117-25 in league competition.

...but what does this Vietnamese family think of AMERICANS?

It depends on how we prove we're the good guys — and pronto!
And the only way to do that is with the kind of friendship you can put your finger on:
Something to eat.
A tool to turn the earth over with.
A roof under which their children can learn.
A can of milk, a saw, a bar of soap, a primer.
This is the other face of the war. The men of the Marine Reserves have mustered for the battle for hearts and minds. The weapons are CARE packages — one of the best buys for your money in the world today. Marine reservists all over the country are sending cash donations to CARE, earmarked for civic aid programs in South Vietnam.
This coupon has your name on it. In the time it takes to turn this page, you can make or lose us a friend.
And about the size of your donation: no matter how small it is... it's big in South Vietnam.

Spartans Speak

By Tim Chang

The sale of Analecta, South High's literary magazine, was a fantastic success: the first day was a sell-out. Wide-spread publicity and excellent salesmanship made this achievement possible. The contents of the Analecta are the prolific works of creative Spartans, including the short stories of Marcy Mendelsohn and Eugene Bellevue, and the modernistic poetry of Aerie Stratton.

THE FIRST Annual Mothers and Sons Breakfast was held last Friday, for all members of the Apollo service organization. It came about three weeks too late for Mother's Day, but was enjoyable nevertheless. It's only fair that Mother should have the spotlight to follow up the Fathers and Sons banquet earlier in the year. Paul Kaplan won the Apollo of the Year award, and the new officers were installed.

A new organization has been formed on campus. It's the Symposium Club, dedicated to the oft-neglected fields of science and mathematics. The Symposium Club will promote enjoyment and scholarship in a wide variety of scientific pursuits by holding field trips, discussions, and competitions with other schools. The sponsors are John Conway and Frederick Dwight.

YOU HIT A HOME RUN EVERY TIME YOU GIVE THE PRICELESS GIFT OF BLOOD. RED CROSS BLOOD PROGRAM.

CONGRATULATIONS to Lenny Jay, who came in third at the CIF track finals. This made him eligible to participate in the state finals at Berkeley, the first South High student to do so. Lenny ran in the two-mile course and, as expected, broke a CIF record.

This is Finals Week for seniors, and everyone else starts testing this Friday. As a result, there is much anxiety and last-minute cramming going on. In fact, it can mean the difference between passing or failing a course. Now if you'll excuse me, I have some studying to do.

Obituaries

William Schneps

Rosary will be recited tonight and Requiem Mass will be said tomorrow morning for William Daniel Schneps, formerly of 23701 S. Western, who died Tuesday. Services will be held at Nativity Catholic Church for the retired police officer, born in Michigan Sept. 27, 1883.

A member of the Knights of Columbus and the Holy Name Society of Nativity, he is survived by his widow, Ethel; daughters, Louella Meyers, of Los Angeles, and Leah McGallis, of Las Vegas; a son, Hubert, of Detroit; a brother, Edward; and sisters Carrie Paquet, Kate Stroud, and Loretta Schneps, all of Michigan. Interment will be at Holy Cross Cemetery, Stone and Myers handling arrangements.

Gerald A. Beam

Services are scheduled Thursday at the Stone and Myers Chapel of the Bells for Gerald A. Beam III, who died Sunday in Torrance. The infant was born Nov. 1, 1965 and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Beam, a brother, Donald, and a sister, Linda. Interment will be in Pacific Crest Cemetery.

Lesson Will Have Story Of Daniel

"Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them." This promise from Psalms will be part of the responsive reading at Christian Science church services this Sunday. Subject of the Bible Lesson is "God the Preserver of Man."

The lesson includes the story of Daniel and his three fellow captives whose spiritual steadfastness in worshipping only God preserved them from harm in the lion's den and the "fiery furnace."

Among the related passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, are these lines: "The central fact of the Bible is the superiority of spiritual over physical power... The calm and exalted thought or spiritual apprehension is at peace."

JOHN R. CREVISTON
Airman John R. Creviston Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Creviston of 3521 Senefeld Drive, has been assigned to Holloman AFB, N. M., after completing Air Force basic training. A 1965 graduate of South High School, he will be trained on the job as a construction specialist with the Air Force Systems Command.
