Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

JUNE 8, 1966

When the Torrance Woman's Club opens its new year in the fall these new officers will take the reins of leadership, from left, seated, Mmes. H. Ted Olson, president; W. F. Faulds, Richard Dorothy and C. H Boyd, vice-presidents; standing, R. L. Rudy, recording secretary; Clayton Lilley, corresponding secretary; W. A. Buth, treasurer and Hugh Cahill, program.

FOR BUSINESS AT HAND

Three other important executive posts in the operation of the Torrance Woman's Club next year will be held by, from left, seated, Mmes. Eugene Lenk, auditor; William Mossman, reservations; Dean L. Sears, parliamentarian, with Mrs. Joseph Bay, past president, who installed the new officers at the luncheon (Press-Herald Photos) meeting.

BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Temple Menorah Sisterhood's theme for the coming year is "Sisterhood Builds for the Future" Plotting their course for carrying out the theme are these new officers, who will be installed at a luncheon at the Ports o'Call, Monday, June 13. They are, from left, seated, Mmes. Ben Kaufman, first vice-president, Jack Belford, president; standing, Mark Frisman, second vice-president; David Tanner, third, and Sy Zimmer (Press-Heraid Photo)

Temple Menorah Sisterhood

Installation Luncheon

"Sisterhood Builds for the "Sisterhood Builds for the Future," is the theme of Temple Menorah Sisterhood's annual installation luncheon, slated for Monday, June 13, at the Ports O'Call restaurant in San Pedro at 12 noon.

Mrs. Jackson Belford will be installed as president by Rabbi Jerome Unger, Temple Menorah's spiritual leader. She has just completed a year as first vice-president, and has been an active member of the Sisterhood.

Also serving for the 1966-1967 year will be Mmes. Ben Kaufman, first vice president; Mark Frisman, second vice president; David Tanner, third vice presi-dent; Sy Zimmerman, fourth vice president; Harvey Abramson, financial secretary; Joseph Bell, treasurer; Bernard Dubrow, recording secretary; Donald Mehegan, corresponding secretary; and Sidney Greene, histori-

On the committee for the On the committee for the luncheon are Mmes. Gene Kaufman, David Golden-berg, Harvey Cole, Sidney Greene, Robert Collins, Don-ald Mehegan, and Seymour Schor.

The annual surprise announcement of the "Woman of Merit," will be made during the afternoon. This award is given in recognition of three or more years of continuous support to Temple Menorah and Sisterhood.

In Candlelight Ritual

Woman's Club Seats Officers for 1966-67

As each new officer of the Torrance Woman's Club was given her official duties, Mrs. J. P. Bay, installing officer, lighted a green or yellow candle, carrying out the club colors, in an impressive ceremony at a luncheon at the clubhouse last Wednesday.

The catered installation luncheon closed a successful club year, under the presidency of Mrs. H. F. Heinlein.

Assuming the leadership of the club for the 1966-67 year were Mmes. H. Ted Olson, president; William Faulds, first vice-president; Richard Dorothy, second vice-president; A. O. Boyd, third vice-

Others accepting office responsibilities were Mmes. R. L. Rudy, recording secretary; Clayton Lilley, corresponding secretary; W. A. Buth, treasurer; Eugene Lenk, auditor; William Mossman, reservations; H. M. Cahill, program; and Dean Sears, parliamentarian

Recently the Torrance Woman's Club chose as its permanent philanthropy the awarding of nursing scholarships. At last Wednesday's luncheon, the first of these scholarships were given. Recipients were Margaret Eckles, Torrance High senior, and Julie Frese, North High graduate.

Following the installation and scholarship awarding, guests were entertained by Cecelia Dvorka, who sang several gypsy selections.

DISTINQUISHED VISITOR

Torrance's "supermarket library," the Educational Materials Bldg., fascinated the State's First Lady, Mrs. Pat Brown, wife of the governor, on her visit to the South Bay last Friday. Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of Torrance Unified School District, and Mrs. John Shidler (Rosemary DeCamp) show Mrs. Brown one of the large conveyor belts, transporting a stack of books to a waiting truck to be delivered to one of the area schools. Dr. Hull, also, presented the Governor's wife with a History of Torrance, compiled by district personnel, aided by the Torrance League of Women

SHOWERS OF LOVE

Babies awaiting adoption will be showered with gifts when the Sir Beaumain Auxiliary of the Children's Home Society holds a shower Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Monier Bowlus, 4921 Bindewald Rd. Mrs. Donald Wilmeth, ways and means chairman, and two new members, Mrs. William LaValley and Mrs. Daio L. Valentini, show their gifts to William LaValley, Jr., 20-month-old adopted son of the LaValleys. Membership information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Charles Burton. (Press-Herald Photo)

Sir Beaumain Auxiliary Plans

Adoptive Baby Shower

Sir Beaumain's Auxiliary to the Children's Home Society will stage a baby shower for babies awaiting adop-tion Monday evening, June tion Monday evening, June 13, at the home of the Aux-iliary president, Mrs. Monier iliary president, Mrs. Monier Bowlus, 4921 Bindewald Rd.,

Gifts will be given to the boarding parents to use for the babies until they are placed with their adoptive

In addition to auxiliary members, several new members will be in attendance. They are Mmes. William Fisher, Will LaValley, James P. Nix, Ed Ryba, Stanley Stancl, Dave Turnage and Lewis Valentini.

Children's Home Society founded in 1891, is noting its Diamond Jubilee this year.

Diamond Jubilee this year. The only statewide adoption agency, the society has placed over 27,000 children of every race and faith in homes where they may find security and happiness.

Serving homeless chil-ren, natural parents and dren, natural parents and couples seeking to adopt, services in 1965 were 10 percent migner than 1964 and 16 percent higher than 1963. Cost of services is covered by fees to the adoptive par-ents, allocations of Commun-ity Chests and United Funds, contribution from individus. contribution from individuals and organizations, and als and organizations, and funds raised by 2,000 mem-bers of more than 200 aux-iliaries. The South Bay area is served by four auxiliar-

Children's Home Society has offices at 127 E. 14th St., Long Beach and 3100 W. Adams Blvd., Los Angeles.

Anyone interested in working with the Sir Beaumain Auxiliary may contact Mrs. Charles Burton for Mrs. Charles Burton f membership information.

Hadassah Chapter

To Seat Officers

Officers for the year 1966-67 of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah will be installed on Tuesday, June 14, at 12:30 at the Plush Horse Restaurant. Installing officer will be Mrs. Joseph Heller, newsy-elected president of the Southern Pacific Coast Region of Hadassah. Rabbi Jerome Unger of Temple Menorah will give the invocation.

Mrs. Bernard Wechsberg has been reelected president of the chapter. Other officers include Mmes. Donald Wilson, membership vice-president, Samuel Gries, ways and means; Charles Luger, program; Benjamin Ruby, education; Samuel Habif, treasurer; Joseph Eskenazi, corresponding secretary; Morris Brahin, recording secretary; and Harry Hyman, financial secretary.

On the Board of Directors will be Mmes. Max Stern, American Affairs; Walter Raine, Youth Aliyah; David Cohen, donor and eye bank; Nan Satton, tributes; William Korach, bulletin, and Fay Baldwin, vocational educa-

Reservations may be made by telephoning Mrs. Charles Luger or Mrs. Harry Hyman.