

Marriage Solemnized

Mrs. Mary C. Bartholomew, 2759 Onrado St., Torrance, became the bride of Ralph E. Greenup of El Segundo in a mid-afternoon ceremony Sunday, June 19, at the First Christian Church, Rev. Milton Sippel, pastor, officiated at the single ring vow exchange.

For her wedding, the bride wore a waltz length turquoise crepe gown fashioned on princess lines, with a sweetheart neckline. With this, she wore a small turquoise crepe pillbox hat and a short veil.

Miss Karen Bartholomew, daughter of the bride, served as maid of honor and Thomas Greenup of the United States Air Force, Seattle, Wash., stood as his father's best man.

Ushers were Eric Lundquist, Terry Goldstone and William Bartholomew.

During the ceremony, Miss Kathy Greenup sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Wedding Prayer."

Immediately following the marriage, a reception was

Bethel Choir Competes at Grand Bethel

Bethel 61, Job's Daughters of Redondo, will enter the choir competition at the Grand Bethel Session to be held in Long Beach June 24-26.

The choir has been under the direction of Miss Barbara Comley, a member of the Bethel.

While at the Grand Session, members will witness talent shows and drill teams from other Bethels in competition.

The line officers, Pat Evers, honored queen; Barbara Rosellen, senior princess; Randi Freeland, junior princess; Peggy MacConaghy, guide; Roberta Rosellen, marshal, and Debbie Ferris, Wendy Freeland and Kim Fowler, past honored queens, will attend the banquets.

In attendance at the Grand Bethel, will be members from Bethels throughout California.

B&PW Club Sends Five To Session

President Virginia Hulse of the Torrance chapter of the Business and Professional Women's Club headed a delegation of members to Anaheim Saturday where the Sierra Mar District of the California organization held a luncheon meeting.

In addition to the president, women from Torrance at the meeting included Bernice Chamberlain, Lorna Land, Doris Erikson, and Alpha M. Larrieux.

Discussions and a workshop on activities of California women were conducted by Virginia Hageloch during the all-day meeting.

held in Fellowship Hall at the church. Presiding at the gift table and the guest book were Mmes. Thomas Greenup, Eric Lundquist and Terry Goldstone.

The newlyweds are now on a three weeks honeymoon trip on which they will visit in West Virginia, Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota.

Upon their return they will be at home at 2759 Onrado.

Mrs. Greenup has been a resident of Torrance for the past 24 years. She is president of the American Field Service Chapter and is active in the First Christian Church.

Her husband, a member of the Westchester Elks lodge, is a salesman with Hessel Chevrolet Co., El Segundo.

President to Lecture on Echeverias

Don Skinner, president of the National Cactus and Succulent Society, will show films and lecture on Echeverias at the next meeting of the Gardena Cactus and Succulent Society, Friday, June 24, at the Prairie Avenue Recreation Center, 141st and Prairie in Hawthorne at 8 p.m.

Since this is plant donation month, members of the club will bring some 50 or 60 rooted, potted cactus and succulent plants.

Visitors are invited to attend, view the plant displays and join with the club in refreshments.

Club Parades Fashion of Now, Then

A champagne fashion show was held recently by the Hi-Neighbor Club members in the home of Mrs. Noel Merriam, who acted as hostess with Mrs. Alton Nigh as co-hostess. Their theme was "Fashions of Today and Yesteryears." As cameras flashed and soft music was played, club members tripped gracefully down an improvised runway, modeling fashions which they had created themselves and completed with co-ordinating accessories.

Mrs. Alton Nigh was awarded first prize for her sports ensemble which featured abbreviated skirt and was worn with a chic, black felt cloche.

Mrs. Jess Huerta modeled a pebble-white, work-and-play jump suit which was very favorably received.

Mrs. William Simpson's turquoise and white beach costume combined tapered slacks and a short overblouse printed in a now-see-it-now-you-don't surreal design, reminiscent of Salvador Dali, aroused much comment.

Mrs. Ralph Madden was old fashioned in pale blue with wide brimmed straw hat.

Mmes. Clyde Tierney, Harold Bloom, James Christy and Mrs. J. Lamm were also prize winners.

Others modeling were Mmes. T. Eno, Richard Fleming, Mae Prochut and Donald Terry.

Auxiliary Will Elect Officers

Localites To Attend Convention

Second national convention of La Leche League, International will be held June 22-24 at the Sheraton Lincoln Hotel, Indianapolis, Ind., with representatives from 36 states and five countries.

Mrs. C. R. Thompson, national president, will preside at the convention, at which 317 groups will be represented.

The theme of the convention will be "Mothering Through Breastfeeding." The keynote address will be given by Herbert Ratner, M.D., director of Public Health, Oak Park, Ill. Mrs. Nikolai Louie of Los Angeles, California State Coordinator, will address the convention at a luncheon on Family Centered Maternity Care.

Local leaders attending are Mmes. Sherman Nathanson, South Bay Chapter president; J. M. O'Donnell, Redondo Beach group leader and Mrs. Dan Lew, Inglewood group leader. These leaders will each conduct breakfast conferences on La Leche League meeting subjects.

Following the convention, city-wide conferences will be held to discuss information brought back from the convention.

Miss Hayes Given Alum Scholarship

Mrs. Jack D. Stuckeman, scholarship chairman of the South Bay Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club, announces that the group's annual scholarship has been awarded to Victoria Gail Hayes, a graduating senior of Torrance High School.

Ranking second in her class, Victoria's academic interests lie in the areas of mathematics and science. She plans to attend the University of Redlands where she will major in mathematics with the idea of eventually pursuing a career as a high school mathematics teacher or as a computer programmer.

The South Bay Alpha Gamma Delta Alumnae Club scholarship is awarded annually to a physically handicapped boy or girl graduating from a local high school. The recipient's selection is based on need, scholarship, and eligibility to attend a four-year college or university.
