

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

Attention! PTA Press Chairmen

Press releases from all PTA units are to be sent to Mrs. Ralph Gring, 16622 Haas Ave., Gardena, who will edit the PTA column for the Press-Herald for 1966-67. Mrs. Gring must receive the release by Monday to have it appear in the following Sunday Press-Herald.

TORRANCE COUNCIL

Torrance Council PTA Budget and Finance Committee met recently at the home of Mrs. Perry Baker. Mrs. Vernon Terry, budget and finance chairman, presided over the discussion and plans for the Council budget for 1966-1967 were formed. The budget will be submitted to the association for approval at the Council meeting in September.

Assisting Mrs. V. Terry were council officers and chairmen, Mmes. Perry Baker, president; J. McDonald, treasurer; Jack Spurlock, financial secretary; Hiro Muranaka, junior past president.

Discussion also centered on the issue of a Council Handbook for all Council chairmen.

A membership committee meeting will be held in the near future to form plans for the annual membership drive held in October in all units of Torrance PTA.

Hickory

New officers for the Hickory PTA for the coming year are Mmes. Ben Wallace, president, Joseph Ruzek, John Laskaris, John Berliner and Charles Pecora, vice-presidents, William Hussey, corresponding secretary, Jack Salling, recording secretary; Paul Mackay, historian; Milton Sumner, parliamentarian; and Mr. John Camp, auditor.

CASIMIR

Graduation ceremonies at Casimir Elementary school began on June 16 as 58 eighth graders marched to their seats through the traditional arbor which had been decorated with school colors of blue and silver. Music for the processional and recessional was provided by the Casimir school orchestra under the direction of Milton Marcus.

After presentation of awards by Edwin Brown, school principal, diplomas were bestowed upon the graduates by Dr. Robert Morton, assistant superintendent of the Torrance Unified School District.

Following the ceremony, a tea was given by the Casimir PTA, with Mrs. Keith Morgan as chairman.

The school cafeteria, for this night only, had been turned into a "Moonlit Garden," and it was here that the graduates enjoyed a buffet supper and the graduation dance. A big golden moon had been suspended from the ceiling and it shown happily over numerous trees which had been enhanced with myriads of flowers. Tables, covered in pastel cloths and flower and candle centerpieces, were scattered about the room.

Assisting Mrs. Lynn Thompson, graduation chairman, were Mmes. H. A. Anderson and Philip Wizer. Decorations were done by Mrs. T. E. Johnston, and Mrs. Duane Pockrandt was in charge of refreshments.

Each graduate received a class picture, made possible by Mrs. Paul Fulmer in memory of her husband.

HAMILTON

The first meeting of 1966-67 executive board of Hamilton PTA was held June 2, at the home of Mrs. L. E. Townsend. The officers present were, Mmes. L. E. Townsend, president; Jack Higar, first vice president; J. C. Desimone, second vice president; Joseph Kettering, recording secretary; R. J. Peet, corresponding secretary; Donald Luce, treasurer; Jack W. Cleveland, auditor, and Bruce Bouiter, historian.

A tea was given for the teachers by the retiring board on June 9, and all teachers and school personnel were in attendance.

Graduation was held at 7:30 p.m. on June 16. Mr. Fries, 8th grade teacher, gave the class presentation and it was accepted by Dr. Albert Posner. The diplomas were presented by the principal, Mr. B. J. Vassar. A reception for the graduates and their families was held in the homelike room following the graduation exercises. The reception and graduation was planned and given by the seventh grade parents.

CALLE MAYOR

The Calle Mayor PTA program committee met Thursday, June 9, to complete plans for the coming year. The theme decided upon is "Through the Looking Glass."

In keeping with the theme, the year's activities will begin with an ice cream social—"The Mad Hatter's Tea Party"—in October, and will feature group conferences and presentation of new staff members.

Attending the program committee meeting, which was held at the home of Mrs. B. R. Plaster, first vice president, were Mmes. Tom Pryor, president; Bruce Paul, hospitality; Philip MacBride, third vice president; William Irgens, art; and Ron Bath, publicity.

MADISON

Installation of officers for Madison PTA was performed by Mrs. Irven Flanagan, 8th grade teacher, with the following officers installed: Mmes. William Mowery, president; Myron Moore, first vice president; H. D. Watkins, second vice president; Charles Mathews, third vice president; Roy Wells, recording secretary; Carl Luehamann, corresponding secretary; James Reynolds, treasurer; Glenn Marshall, auditor; Edward Kelley, historian; Frank Melillo, parliamentarian; and Mrs. John Strom, faculty advisor.

A highlight of the evening was Miss Anderson's fifth and sixth grades when they did a group of calypso songs. The children climaxed the evening by doing the limbo dance. The room count trophy was awarded to Mrs. Gaedke's class.

TORRANCE HIGH

Dr. and Mrs. Carl Ahee, hosted board members of Torrance High School PTA, at a recent installation meeting, held in their home.

Mrs. Paul Crossman, past president, installed the following officers: Mmes. James Davis, president; Harley Gray, first vice president; John Tweedy, recording secretary; Bernard Lassere, corresponding secretary; Messrs. Marcus Caldwell, second vice president; John Sala, treasurer; and Orville Hoy, historian.

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka, junior past president of Torrance Council of PTA, has been appointed as parliamentarian. Chairmen ratified were Mmes. H. S. Rogers, after graduation party; Mickey McDonald, budget and finance; Grant Jones, courtesy; Leo Levanac, Founders Day, health and welfare; Kenneth Davis, Honorary Life; B. D. Waters, hospitality; Herbert Hanes, magazines; A. L. Campbell, membership; A. L. Littleton, parent education; Keith Johnson, publicity; Ivan Eckersley, record book; Ernest O. Erickson, spiritual and character; Robert Hagenbaugh, ways and means. Mr. Thurston Braddock will serve as art chairman.

Mrs. James Davis, president, announced the next board meeting will be held Thursday, June 23, in the school conference room, 2200 W. Carson.

LINCOLN

Mrs. Ralph Gring presided over her last meeting as president of Lincoln School PTA on May 12. The flag ceremony was led by Brownie Troop 849 and the inspirational message was offered by Helen Ruby. Music for the evening was provided by Tri-Gra-Y and Junior Tri-Hi-Y-groups. Principal Ernest Thom thanked the PTA for the work they have done in the past year. He also spoke of the importance of the June 7 school bond issue.

Record Books were presented to Mrs. Andrew Foster by Mrs. Harold Caswell and Mrs. Marcier. The Historian's report written by Mrs. Harold Erickson was read by Mrs. Malcolm Rhodes, who represented Lincoln PTA at the State convention in San Francisco.

Program for the evening was a wood shop exhibit and fashion show, modeled by 8th grade girls of the home economics class and narrated by Mrs. Raymond Doyle. Mrs. Gragg's 2nd-3rd graders presented a skit which introduced the following officers for the 1966-67 PTA year: Mmes. Raymond Doyle, president; Earl Pitts, Harold Caswell, and Adam Voelker, vice presidents; Malcolm Rhodes, recording secretary; Henry vonMuegge, corresponding secretary; A.C. Bongiorno, treasurer; Charles Brown, auditor; and Harold Erickson, historian.

PHILIP MAGRUDER

Philip Magruder PTA paused at Vacation Valley on their "Pathways from Home to School" on Wednesday May 11, for Mrs. Perry Baker, Council PTA president, to install the new Magruder PTA team. The meeting also featured the historian's report, which was compiled in booklet form by Mrs. Herman Redmerski. The Los Angeles County Lifeguard Assn. presented a program of films and a speaker, who offered special tips for the summer vacation period. Old and new record books were on display during refreshment time and announcements were made of Billy Bart's program during June.

MEADOW PARK

Past and new executive board members of Meadow Park PTA met at Filippone's for luncheon and a meeting to ratify the following new chairmen: Mmes. B.J. Moon-eyham, program; Tom Akiyama and William Bakke, ways and means; Ormel Duke, membership; Jules Kempner, budget and finance; Tom Krivdo, courtesy.
