

Awards, Installation At Leadership Banquet

New student officer Calvin Sisco accepted his charge as President of the Associated Students of El Camino College from Bob Varro of the campus student court at a student leadership banquet Sunday at the Plush Horse restaurant.

Also honored on the banquet program were retiring student officers. Receiving the two most coveted honors awarded at the dinner were Miss Lisa Smith, retiring vice president of the Associated Students, and Miss Judy Jones, former commissioner of public relations.

Miss Smith, a resident of Hermosa Beach, was awarded the Outstanding Student Council Member award by retiring president Bob McConville of Torrance. Miss Jones, Torrance, was introduced by Dean of Men Hamilton H. Maddaford as winner of the annual Forrest G. Murdock Award. Named for the first president of the college, the Murdock award is presented to a student demonstrating outstanding academic, leadership and service potential.

STUDENT government awards were made to student colleagues and committeemen by Miss Karen Landreth, El Segundo, inter-club council; Rick Thomas, Manhattan Beach, assembly board and spring sing committee; Fredrick Rose III, Manhattan Beach, health education and welfare board; Miss Eileen Banks, Torrance, public relations board; Bill Packer, Torrance, publication board; Miss Dianne Lariviere, Manhattan Beach, pep council; Miss Suzie Alston, Inglewood, Associated Women; Miss

THE Journalist of the Year award was made to Bill Polick, Torrance by W. A. Kamrath, Redondo Beach.

INCOMING officers who will serve with Sisco next fall include Robert McGlone, Hermosa Beach, vice president; Miss Landreth, commissioner of activities; Tim Scott, Redondo Beach, commissioner of assemblies; Wally Daniels, Torrance, commissioner of health, education and welfare; Carl Schulz, Torrance, commissioner of public relations; Miss Lariviere, commissioner of rallies; Tom Buckingham, Hawthorne, commissioner of publications; Miss Alston, AWS president; Huge Wood, Gardena, AMS president; Edward McGrath, Gardena, sophomore class president; George Owen, Torrance, chief justice of student court; Miss Lupe Zavala, Lawndale, AWS vice president, and Miss Virginia Herren, ICC secretary.

Following the luncheon, the Lions will inspect the new YMCA facility.

Flames Gut Dominguez Area Home

Fire gutted the kitchen of a Dominguez home Sunday evening while the owners were away.

Damage to the home, located at 21849 Salmon Ave., was estimated at $1,100. County firemen said the fire was reported at 9:04 p.m.

Other rooms in the house sustained smoke damage, owner Hubert S. Logan reported. Smoking materials dumped into a waste basket are believed to have caused the fire.
