

LLOYD HEARN
Takes New Assignment

McCulloch Names New P.R. Chief

Lloyd Hearn has been named public relations manager for McCulloch Corp. It was announced by Robert K. Orser, marketing services manager.

Hearn had been assistant relations manager for the chain saw and outboard manufacturing firm since December, 1964. He replaces Will Rusch who was appointed to a new post with the firm. Prior to joining McCulloch, Hearn was public relations director of the Downtown Business Men's Assn. of Los Angeles. A graduate of USC, he started his career with the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and later served with Union Pacific Railroad Brooks Advertising Agency, Bank of Los Angeles, and Joseph J. Micchiche and Associates.

Keith McMahan, editorial assistant with the company since 1950, has been named assistant manager to Hearn.

Detective Solves His Last Case

Floyd W. Rosenberg chief of detectives for the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, has solved his last case.

Rosenberg, a veteran of 25 years with the department, will retire next Friday after a career which has included solving some of the nation's major crimes.

A graduate of Oregon State University, Rosenberg hoped for a career in banking. Fate and the depression deemed otherwise, and Rosenberg began a career as a deputy sheriff. In the past 25 years, he has risen to the highest civil service position obtainable in law enforcement.

"The regret which I feel personally is only magnified by the intense loyalty which Floyd Rosenberg has elicited from the hundreds of detectives under his command," Sheriff Peter J. Pitchess said.

Rosenberg and his wife, Helen, will travel to Camp Sherman, Ore., for fishing, boating, and other recreational activities.

Lomita Sets Afternoon Activities

The Lomita Recreation Department has scheduled a co-recreational drop-in activity each day from 4 until 6 p.m. during the summer. During the two-hour period, the gymnasium is open for games and activities.

Volleyball, ping pong, dancing, carroms, basketball, and other games may be played. Information about the program may be obtained by calling the Lomita Recreation Center, 326-0140.

DISEASES NOTED
Reported cases of notifiable diseases from the Torrance area for the week ending June 25 included the following: gonorrhea, four; measles, three; hepatitis, two; and scarlet fever, two. Also reported were one case each of epilepsy, mumps, syphilis, and tuberculosis.

Law in Action

Yes, a teenager's life is standard of conduct, it probably would not have found him at fault. But if it held him to adult standards, he surely would have to pay for the harm he did.

In Johnny's case the court ruled that he had to meet adult standards. Since he drives a car, he does something that the state has licensed. Supposedly licenses are limited to mature people. Johnny, therefore, must be treated like such an adult. He was held to the standards of conduct of an adult and had to pay for the harm he did.

NOW, IF Johnny were riding a bicycle, or playing a ball game in the middle of the street, the law most likely would have held him to the standards of a 16-year-old and likely to act impulsively at times.

In another case a father allowed his twelve year old son to drive his motor boat. The boy crashed into another boat, injuring those aboard. The court held the boy to the standards of an adult skipper.

When a youngster does something, which calls for an adult's skill he must meet those standards. Then, too, his parents was liable since he entrusted the boat to an irresponsible youngster.

The law makes several exceptions. For example, the law treats a youngster who commits what would otherwise be a crime differently from what it would an adult. The single, irresponsible act is that of a "delinquent" — not a criminal. In most cases he will be brought before juvenile court in a civil proceeding, not a criminal one.

THE COURT, probation officers, and the young person's family will try to "rehabilitate" rather than "punish" him.

Sometimes, though, a court may try a youngster in a regular criminal court like an adult, but not often if the youngster is under 18. This sometimes happens on serious felonies.
