Scott - Buop

Miss Linda Phyllis Scott and Daniel Murry Buop were married on June 25 in a 3 o'clock ceremony at the First Christian Church of Torrance. The Rev. H. Milton Sippel officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edward Scott of Hermosa Beach, formerly of Torrance, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Buop of Los Alamitos.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of peau de soie and lace. She made her bridal veil of illusion which was attached to a tiara of pearls and lace. Her bridal bouquet was of white roses, orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Don L. Smith was matron of honor for her sister and attendants were Misses Arline Dupuis and Becky Sue Scott, the bride's younger sister. Ronald L. Buop was best man for his brother. Ushers were William Shrosbee, Daniel Janoski, Don L. Smith and Ray Edward Scott, the bride's brother.

Flower girl was Karen Painter, niece of the bridegroom. Miss Bonnie Jean Miller was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Daniel Janoski took care of the gifts. Mrs. Dean H. Lougee cut the wedding cake.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony. After a honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco, the couple is residing in Hermosa Beach until September when they will make their home in Santa Barbara where the bridegroom is enrolled in college.

MRS. J. T. GREGORY, JR.

Chamberlain

Gregory

In a double ring ceremony at the Peace Presbyterian Church in Eugene, Oregon on July 1, Miss Sharon Kay Chamberlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Chamberlain of Eugene, became the bride of John Thomas Gregory, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gregory of Torrance, who with another son, Charles, attended the wedding.

Rev. John Ewing conducted the double ring vow exchange for which the bride wore a floor length white satin gown on empire lines, decorated with lace, and fashioned with a train. A circlet of pearlized flowers held her illusion veil and she carried white chrysanthemums and rosebuds surrounding white orchids. The bride was escorted to the altar by her father.

Miss Sandra Edwards in yellow brocade, was maid of honor and Charlene Easton was flower girl.

Charles Gregory stood as his brother's best man and ushers were Ronnie Chamberlain, and Gerry Easton. Mark Mitchell was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Doris Elitt and Rickey Chamberlain.

Following a honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Eugene.

Groover - Legge

Two Narbonne High School graduates of 1965, Miss Jolynne Groover and James T. Legge were married in an early evening ceremony on July 1 at the Wayside Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Groover, 26010 President Ave., Harbor City are parents of the bride. Dr. and Mrs. K. R. Legge of Darien, Conn. are the bridegroom's parents.

Mr. Groover walked with his daughter to the altar. She wore a full length white linen gown fashioned with an intermission train. The neckline and sleeves were enhanced with lace. Her bouffant illusion veil was held by a linen band and the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Rea Lu Preder, in gold silk, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids, in fern green, were Mrs. Shary Milburn, Misses Rosanne Tritica and Pamela Jeffrey.

Candles were lighted by Miss Carla Haller and Brad McMinn.

Charles Beech stood as best man and guests were seated by Martin Van Buren and Frank Wagester.

Rev. H. Rosine officiated as Mrs. Isabel Malcom played the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Lu McMinn, soloist.

A reception was held at the church with Miss Lu Anne McMinn registering the guests.

The couple is now at home at 1719 259th St., Lomita.
