

THE MELBA TOAST stuffing used in this Indian Chicken Pronto recipe allows the bread to absorb just the right amount of liquid to maintain a fluffy, moist consistency. Recipe uses a ready-mix stuffing.

Spice of Far East

Indian chicken pronto combines curry and seasoned ready-to-use dressing mix with cooked chicken, chives and apples in a sauce. This mixture is then velled in a cloak of browned biscuits for a flavor surprise that is quick and easy to prepare.

You'll want to use Mrs. Cubbison's Corn Bread stuffing, which is melba toasted and seasoned to bring out the flavors of fruit or vegetables.

INDIAN CHICKEN PRONTO

- 2 tbs. frozen chopped chives
- 1 tbs. curry powder
- 1/4 tsp. garlic salt
- 1/4 cup brown sugar
- 1 cup chicken broth
- 2 cups pineapple juice
- 6 tbs. butter or margarine
- 2 cups Mrs. Cubbison's Corn Bread "Stuffin"

2 cups cored, unpeeled red apples, coarsely chopped

4 cups cooked chicken, coarsely diced

1 tube refrigerator biscuits

Place chives, curry powder, garlic salt, brown sugar, chicken broth, pineapple juice and half the butter in a large skillet with removable handle. Heat until very hot, but not boiling. Stir in corn bread stuffing until thoroughly blended. Add apples and chicken. Separate each biscuit in half so you have 24 circles. Arrange circles over top of chicken, overlapping edges. Melt remaining butter and brush over biscuits. Brown at 425 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes, or until biscuits are puffed and golden brown. Serve from skillet. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

AFTER SWIM SNACK is Chocolate Refreshers, served right from the jug they're made in. Pass chilled fresh fruit for a refreshing and nourishing duo.

Make Refreshments In A Vacuum Jug

Summer swimming Olympics are on in everyone's back yard or patio pool.

Once out of the water, the aquanauts are thirsty and a bit hungry. That's the time to bring out a big vacuum jug of Chocolate Refreshers, a thick chocolaty milk shake made right in the picnic jug itself. No beating necessary!

CHOCOLATE REFRESHERS

- 1 cup quick chocolate-flavored mix
- 1 quart milk
- 2 drops almond extract
- 1 pint chocolate ice cream
- 1 pint nut ice cream

Combine quick chocolate-flavored mix, milk and almond extract in a half-gallon vacuum pack jug; stir or shake until smooth. Add ice cream in large chunks. Keep jug handy for outdoor snacks.

JULY IDEAS for COOKING WITH BEER!

HAM 'N BEER
Whole or half ham
Beer
Water
Confectioners' sugar

In a large kettle, cover ham with half beer and half water. Bring to boil, turn heat low, cover tightly and simmer until tender, about 1 1/2 hours for a 5-lb. tenderized ham. Remove ham, place in shallow pan. Sift sugar over ham. Bake at 450 degrees about 10 minutes.

SUMMER SOUP (COLD)

- 1 1/2 cups beer
- 1 1/2 cups sour cream
- 2 cucumbers, peeled and diced
- 1 tsp. salt
- 1/4 tsp. freshly ground black pepper

Gradually add beer to sour cream, stirring well. Add other ingredients. Serve very cold. Serves 4.

Moon Voyage Continues At Observatory Theater

A spectacular flight through space highlighted by a simulated "soft" landing on the moon's surface is offered

Dr. Cleminshaw said that "A Trip to the Moon" will be presented through September 11 and is offered daily at 3:30 and 9:15 p.m. with extra matinees at 1:30 and 4:30 p.m. on weekends and holidays.

Audiences viewing the show are transported from earth to a crater on the moon by means of projections on the theater's domed ceiling by the giant Zeiss planetarium machine, according to Dr. Clarence H. Cleminshaw, director at the Los Angeles City Recreation and Parks Department facility.

Photos of the moon taken on recent lunar probes are utilized in the presentation.

FROM THE lunar surface, travelers are able to view the earth as it rotates on its axis

THE HALL OF Science is also open seven days a week and may be toured free of admission charge. Dr. Cleminshaw said.

Exhibits in the facility include a telescope, a submarine periscope, a seismograph and various other scientific equipment.

The Observatory is open

Who's Got The Cutest Baby Face?

"Baby Face, who's got the cutest . . ."

That will be the question Friday for a group of Senior Citizens during the Joslyn Active Over 50s Club. The club has planned a luncheon at noon Friday at the Joslyn Recreation Center.

Prizes will be awarded to the person identifying the most baby pictures during the luncheon. Admission to the event is one favorite dish, table service for one, and a baby picture — of yourself.

The Joslyn Active Over 50s Club is an informal organization of senior citizens which meets each Friday for arts and crafts projects and spec-
