

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Ralph Gring

EDISON
A meeting of the Edison PTA Ways and Means committee was held by Ways and Means chairman, Mrs. Shattuc Jones, on June 14, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Lester. PTA activities for the new school year were discussed.

During the summer Edison PTA will present three movies for the entertainment of vacationing students. The movies selected are: "Hans Christian Anderson," "Rob Roy," and "Big Red." They are all in color and will be shown at Edison School on three consecutive Wednesdays at 1:30 p.m., beginning on July 18.

HOWARD WOOD
"Broadway Comes to Wood" is a musical program by Howard Wood Elementary School students to be presented to parents on Friday, July 22, at 9:30 a.m. With the exception of songs from Mary Poppins, the singing program will consist entirely of selections from famous Broadway musicals.

The primary students will present songs from the very popular movie Mary Poppins. Third and fourth graders will sing selections from "The King and I," the eminently successful Rodgers and Hammerstein classics, "The Sound of Music" and "Oklahoma."

The Wood program is under the direction of George Pugsley and Miss Harumi Inouye.

Parents are invited to attend. Wood school is planning to encourage student participation in an organized musical program when school opens in September. Refreshments will be served after the program by the Howard Wood PTA Board members.

MADRONA
Madrone PTA held its program planning meeting June 28 at the home of Mrs. Frank Paour, first vice president in charge of programming. Members of the committee included Mmes. Frank Paour, program chairman; A. Godschaix, second vice president in charge of education, and Clay Alexander, inspirational chairman. Serving as advisors to the committee were: Mrs. Dorothy Roach, president of Madrona PTA; Dr. William Forrest, principal Madrona and C. W. Newberry, vice principal.

The coming year's programs were planned around the over-all theme for the year which is, "MADRONA, Where the Action Is!" The first ways and means project for the year was held July 8. A movie, "Yellow Stone Cuts," and "Hawaiian Holiday" cartoons were shown. The children enjoyed a free bag of popcorn while viewing the movie.

MEADOW PARK
Proceeds from the selling of snowcones to summer school students on Tuesday, July 19, at 11:30 a.m. will be used by Meadow Park PTA for school parties and to provide books for the school library.

Participating in this worthwhile project will be the members of the Meadow Park PTA board under the direction of Mrs. Fred Burdette, president.

PERRY
Assisting Mr. Joe Brandon, principal of Perry Elementary School in the office for the month of July will be the Perry PTA members. Typing, filing, and general office assistance will be given by the following: Mmes. Frank Hadley, Donald Rickabaugh, William Heinlein, and Hal Braham.

LINCOLN
Parents of Lincoln Elementary students welcomed their new principal, Mr. Victor Kilburn at a "get acquainted coffee" held July 7 in the cafeteria.

Mr. Kilburn was introduced by Mrs. Raymond Doyle, president of Lincoln Elementary PTA. Before coming to Lincoln, Mr. Kilburn had been principal of Walteria Elementary School for seven years.

Mrs. Andrew Foster, hospitality chairman, served cookies and coffee to seventy five parents, from a beautiful floral-decorated table, over which hung a patchwork designed welcome sign to Mr. Kilburn. The welcome sign was made by Mr. Andrew Foster. Assisting Mrs. Foster were the following PTA members, Mmes. Raymond Doyle, president; Yoshio Higashi, courtesy; Maurice Mercier, room representative; and Auburn Atkins, hospitality committee.

SEASIDE
From 6 to 9 p.m. on Wednesday, July 20, Deputy Registrar, A. P. Williamson will be at Seaside Elementary school office, 4651 Sharynne Lane, to register voters for the Fall election.

As requested by Mrs. Perry Baker, president of Torrance Council of PTA, Seaside PTA is offering this community service to all parents and neighbors of its students to register before the Sept. 15 deadline.

FERN GREENWOOD
Fern Greenwood PTA Board celebrated a successful year at their luncheon held at the Velvet Turtle Restaurant. The immediate past president, Mrs. E. O. Erickson, presented each one present with a campaign ribbon for a successful year since the year's motto was nautical.

Although several members were eligible to receive it, due to the fact that so many were ill or had surgery during the year, Mrs. Erickson presented herself the Purple Heart ribbon. Each Board member received a beautiful pin cushion and a note of thanks from the former president. The board presented Mrs. Erickson with a pair of Butane candles in appreciation of a job well done during the past year.

Members attending were: Mmes. E. O. Erickson, L. F. Kane, F. E. Smith, W. Weingartner, J. Arensmeyer, T. Striebach, E. Hatter, G. F. Tanza, J. Lundblad, H. S. Rogers, C. E. Tyler, J. Stoneberg, A. Sielaff, J. H. Hull, Mr. Donald Credell, principal, and Mr. Grant Logan, vice principal.

TORRANCE HIGH
Mrs. H. S. Rogers, president of Torrance High School PTA, announces the following have been elected to serve during the 1966-67 PTA year for Torrance High PTA: President, Mrs. James A. Davis; first vice president, Mrs. Harley Gray; recording secretary, Mrs. John Tweedy and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Bernard Lassere. Messrs. Marcus Caldwell, 2nd vice president; John Sala, treasurer; James A. Davis, auditor; Orville Hoy, historian. Mrs. Hiro Murakami has been appointed to the position of parliamentarian.

The next association meeting will be held on May 18 at 3:30 p.m. in the main cafeteria where the students of the sewing class will present their annual fashion show with refreshments served and prepared by the home economics class.

Elk Ladies Will Serve Salad Lunch

Torrance Ladies of the Elks will serve a salad luncheon on Tuesday, July 19, from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the Elks Lodge on Abalone.

The price of admission includes all kinds of salad plus coffee and dessert. The public is invited to attend.

Oklahoma Guests

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Myer on Ridgeland Rd. last Wednesday evening were Mr. Myer's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myer of Mounds, Okla., who are vacationing in California.

YOU CAN'T VOTE UNLESS YOU REGISTER

The Voter Registration message is being carried to all residents by the Torrance Council PTA and all PTA units in their drive now under way. The drive, a part of the PTA's citizenship program, will continue until the registration deadline Sept. 15. Getting the campaign to register all eligible voters off to a bang start are, from left, standing Mmes. Perry Baker, council president; Ken Holmes, council citizenship chairman. Seated are Mmes. Robert Gee, Crenshaw PTA president; and Don Untereiner, president of the Arnold PTA.

MRS. JOHN RONNOW
(Seeman Portrait)

BAKER - RONNOW

Wayfarers Chapel was the setting for the marriage rites in which Miss Linda Darlene Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Treloar, 1208 Maple Ave., became the bride of John Charles Ronnow of Newport Beach, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ronnow of Pasadena.

The Cahill original wedding gown was of white cotton lace detailed with a satin cummerbund and a two panel train ornamented with three large satin bows. A headpiece of chiffon flowers and pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a white Bible topped by a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Betty Lunbeck was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Miss Ginny Krauszer, Mmes. Rita Stephens and Virginia McCarthy, all wearing powder blue gowns. Lori Foster was flower girl and Kevin Lunbeck carried the rings.

Best man duties were performed by Tom Harvey and ushers were Jim Ronnow, Gary Lewis, Roger Overacker and Tom Pryor.

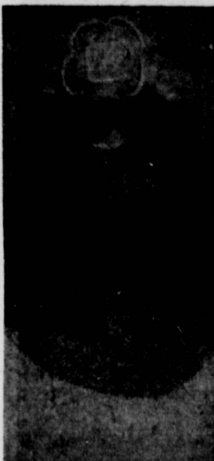

Rev. Robert Young conducted the double ring vow exchange.

The Devonshire room at the Plush Horse was the scene of the buffet reception attended by the 170 guests.

After a three weeks honeymoon in British Columbia, the couple will be at home at 6402 Seashore Dr., Newport Beach.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High School and the Flavio Beauty College.

Her husband received his business administration degree at Pasadena City College and is now employed by Harvey Aluminum here.

MRS. LESTER B. BOAL
(Seeman Portrait)

FALK - BOAL

Miss Renee Jo Anne Falk became the bride of Lester Bryant Boal in a one o'clock ceremony on June 11 at the St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Falk, 17026 Daphne Ave., was escorted to the altar by her father. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harold D. Boal, Hawthorne.

The wedding gown was of Chantilly lace over peau de soie, sprinkled with pearls, and fashioned on empire lines with a chapel train. Her silk illusion veil fell from an organza rose and she carried orchids, stephanotis and baby breath fern.

Bridal attendants, all wearing long aqua chiffon gowns, were Misses Nancy Falk, her sister's maid of honor; Barbara Brady, Renee Harrington, Connie Kroger, and Verna Dillard, bridesmaids. Lorie Linville was flower girl.

Robert Forsythe stood as best man and ushers were Gary Boal, Ronald Green, Roger Redhead and James Limoges.

Rev. Paschal Hardy officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Dorothy Jean, organist, played the nuptial music.

The 200 guests were entertained at a reception at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Gardena with Bruce Hall and his band furnishing dance music.

The newlyweds are at home in Inglewood following a honeymoon.

The bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School and received her AA degree at El Camino.

Her husband is a Leusinger High graduate.

MRS. STEVEN MOORE
(Seeman Studio)

COLBY-MOORE

Among the newlyweds making their home in Torrance are Mr. and Mrs. Steven Moore, who were married in June at a 7 o'clock ceremony at the First Baptist Church. The former Karen Colby and her husband are at home at 2014½ Arlington Ave.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Colby, 22710 Cerise Ave. and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt Moore, 3301 Via La Selva, Palos Verdes.

The bridal gown was of white French taffeta with seed pearl roses ornamenting the full skirt. A waterfall train fell from the neckline. A pearl tiara held the illusion veil and she carried white roses encircling white orchids.

Bridal attendants were Misses Doty Munroe, Lynel Moore and Mrs. Carole Colby. Miss Munroe wore baby blue and the others were in pale green.

Candlelighters were Miss Lori Moore and Mr. Jeffery Schulz.

Ken Royer was best man, and the 300 guests were seated by William Colby and Bill Brown.

Dr. J. C. Brumfield officiated at the vow exchange. Mrs. Garnette Black, organist, accompanied Bill Dickenson and Edward Snyder.

A reception was held in Fellowship Hall and the honeymoon was spent on a northern coastal trip.

The bride, a 1963 South High graduate, is employed by a local physician.

Her husband, a graduate of Palos Verdes High and Biola College, is employed by the Torrance School district.

"Ye shall know the truth"

What does it mean to "know the truth?" Jesus said it would make us free. Our hearts intuitively reach out for this spiritual understanding — the light of Christ. Hear a public lecture called "Christian Science: What It Teaches and What It Does" by JAMES WATT, C.S., member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.
