Okay, Say Something

Dear Ann Landers: After reading the letter from "Too Close For Comfort" I am compelled to give you the other side of the story. "Too Close" described how her mother berated, belittled, and constantly picked on her father for 50 years. Did it occur to you that a man who lets his wife hen-peck him for half a century is no saint. He is just plain dumb. My husband and Long

He is just plain dumb. My husband and I were married too young— both 18. After seven years and three children he announced that he was moving out. I was shocked. Reason: He was sick and tired of listening to me finish his sentences, correct his English in front of friends, and compare his income unfavorably with others in our crowd. He had become fed up with my domineering ways and said so. After a week I asked him to come home. I hadn't realized what I was doing to him and I ad-mitted it.

All this happened many years ago and we've gotten along extremely well ever since. Once, Ann, you wrote, "If you don't want to be treated like a doormat, SAY something—don't just lie there." Why didn't you say that this time?—FORMER HEN-

Dear Former: Thank you. I will. If you don't want to be treated like a doormat SAY something. Don't just lie there.

Dear Ann Landers: I know women who quote you right along with the Bible. You can get ideas across like nobody else. Please print this letter for the benefit of all mothers who have small children.

Actors have noncovy else. Please print this letter for the benefit of all mothers who have small children. Mothers: Please stay out of it when your youngsters are having their little arguments and fights with playmates. Children can be mad at each other one minute and be the best of friends the next minute—if they are left alone. The woman who lives next door was forever getting involved in her children's battles. She was always running to neighbors to protest the way their kids were treating her kids. Naturally, the parents defended their own kids and got into a fight far more bitter than the little squabble the kids had had. My neighbor is now on the outs with everyone in the block and I really feel sorry for her. So, Ann, please warn other mothers not to make the same stupid mistake.—NO REFEREE.

Dear No Ref: Your warning was sufficient. Thank you for writing. It's excellent advice.

Dear Ann: No earthshaking problem, but an annoying one. Can you help? When my husband and I go out for an evening we often walk or take public transportation. We leave our car in the carport.

leave our car in the carport. Some folks in this town have a habit of drop-ping over without first calling to see if it is con-venient. When they see the car in the carport they are certain we have turned out the lights and are hiding in the house. Several women have very nearly called me a liar when I have told them we were not at home when they dropped by. They all mentioned seeing the car in the carport. What do you suggest?—OUT BUT IN.

Dear Out: Why do you let these clods put you on the defensive? Tell them that the next time they want to see you they'd better tele-phone first or they may have to settle for see-ing just the car again.

NEW FIRE ENGINE..., Los Angeles City Fire Department Engine Co. 9 traded it's old fire engine for a new one last week—one of 18 new pieces of equipment to be delivered to the department in the next few months. The symbolic key is being presented by Leslie J. Blumer, equipment mechanic for the city fire de-partment, to Captain Leo Ford, commander of the engine company. Others are (from left) Fireman Maurice G. Gasporra of Lakewood, Engineer Donald W. Greissinger of Sunland, and firemen John J. King Jr. of Torrance, Richard C. Ostoich of Garden Grove, and James R. Haw of Canoga Park.

WINNING TEAM . . . Members of the county's new personnel and management team clasp hands with Supervisor Burton W. Chace (at right). Pictured are Gordon Nesvig, former clerk of the Board of Supervisors and interim personnel director, and James Mize, acting clerk of the board, Mize was named to fill Nes-vig's position on motion of Chace, who is chairman of the board, after Nesvig was named to head the county's new personnel department.

You Could Be Put in Disposable Class, Too

It's amazing how far some American women will go in picking on the American men who enviously considered women in other parts of the world as the ideal specimens of husbandry. Take a simple subject like

"disposables." Now wouldn't you think that men have enough troubles without blaming them for designing a time and laborsaving device created to help you. the housewife, ease your daily duties?

Well, that woman writer who got her start by complaining about my inspiring columns is so obviously short on fault-finding

Writer Mary McGrath, who could without trying, be presi-dent of the Whiners of the Month Club, admits that she, along with others of her kind, would rather others of her kind, would rather trip over these items in kitchens, back halls, basements and garag-es, than pick them up and throw them away with garbage. As to metallic disposables in which ready-mixes and quickle dinners arrive, she says they may crumble, they may shred, but they will not disappear, no mat-ter what."

new will not disappear, no mat-ter what." Poor, poor thing. If she's so overloaded with metallic dispos-ables, left over from quickle cooking, she must have had quite a bit of experience with can-opening, the forerunner of pres-ent-day quickies. What, then, did she ever do with cans, which not only wouldn't crumble or shred but certainly wouldn't disappear by themselves either? Store them under her bed, no doubt. I offer her and you a simple solution. If no home scavenger service is available, then set aside a box or bag specifically for disposable bottles, plastic bags, cartons, etc.

bags, cartons, etc. On your way to the market or your neighborhood kaffee klatsch make a little side trip to the public dump, which is available in most cities.

in most clues. And as you stand there dump-ing the accumulated trash, take a good look at the rest of the garbage and be thankful that there but for the grace of me would be your stomping grounds.
