Dedication Held for Levy Park

Dedication ceremonies for Sam Levy Memorial Park, Carson Street and Plaza del Amo, were held this morning at the Torrance YWCA Building, 2320 W. Carson St.

Speakers for the brief program included Mayor Albert Isen, Councilman George Vico, Attorney Larry Bowman of the Torrance Rotary Club, and George Post, representing the Torrance Chamber of Commerce.

George Schneider of Little Company of Mary Hospital, and Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta, representing the Sam Levy Chapter of the City of Hope, also spoke.

Bring along something you can part with

MONDAY, OCT. 3 10:30 A.M.

Bring something funny — or curious — or significant — but it has to truly represent 1966. We're going to bury the best souvenirs for 50 years at the groundbreaking of Hawthorne Savings permanent office in Torrance. There'll be refreshments too, and crowds of dignitaries. Mayor Albert Isen will turn the first shovel of dirt and select the most unusual mementoes of the year. We're wondering just what people will bring. And while you're at it, bring your savings too — Hawthorne has a temporary office at this address to accommodate you. But we just had to build a bigger, better, beautiful permanent office to hold all the interest you'll be earning — 5 1/4% current annual rate paid or compounded daily. Leave your money for just one year and you'll earn 5.39% when our current annual rate is maintained for one year. Hawthorne Savings Torrance is our third great office to bring more savers the highest rate of interest possible. Plan to join the festivities on Monday, October 3 at 10:30 am. Plan to get the most for your money at Hawthorne Savings, Hawthorne & Carson St., in Torrance.
