'PLAYERS OF THE WEEK'

Redondo Team Hailed

One of the treasured football victories of the year will be Redondo's 19-18 conquest of Santa Monica Friday night. The win will have a big bearing on the outcome of the Bay League. Redondo and Inglewood are tied for first with 3-0 records.

The margin of victory was one point, but considering the Seahawks came back from a 12-0 first quarter deficit, and 18-13 third quarter score, the determined Redondo team is hailed as "players of the week," for a great effort.

Each of Redondo's three touchdowns came on a blocked punt, a bad pass from center on a punt attempt, and a fumble.

Quarterback Gene Cook ran a yard for the first TD. Terry Clemons picked up the loose ball and went 19 yards for the second one, and Cook passed to Terry Smith for 13 yards and the winning score.

Mike Laurella was a fourth quarter hero for Redondo by running for a first down on 3rd-and-17 and 3rd-and-7 situations.

Coach Jim Archer, assistant to Lud Keehn and Don Hay for three years, credited his entire team with a splendid performance. Defense specialists Rogan Thompson, Greg Platt, John Huntington and Gene Chavez received particular praise.

The win was the fifth of the year without a loss for Redondo. The Hawks also beat Lawndale by the margin of Larkin Stentz' placekicking, 21-20. He also booted three in last week's 21-0 win over South.

The Redondo-Santa Monica series has been going on for more than half a century and Friday night's game is believed to be the 50th meeting between the two schools. Redondo's 15 victories over Santa Monica lifetime is the most for anybody against the Vikings.

Disaster Faces Ye Ole Rams!

This is the week wily old Papa Bear George Halas has been waiting for. For this afternoon his arch foes, the Rams, invade Chicago's Wrigley Field, and the strange tales brought back from that lair of the Bear in other years have become legendary among old Ram warriors.

This Sunday may provide new twists to the football folklore, for Halas has a particularly strong urge for victory; his erstwhile aide, George Allen, is back in Chicago as head coach for the first time since battling Halas in court for the right to take over the Rams.

What's more, Allen piled insult on injury by whopping the old master in their initial meeting at the Coliseum a month ago, 31-17.

In this light it seems fitting to recall some of the more sticky occurrences that befell other Ram teams in the arena of the chewing-gum king. Three former Ram greats, Dick Daugherty, Don Paul and Les Richter, still have vivid memories of them.

"Halas is a master of psychology and he never misses a chance to upset the opposition," said Daugherty, who was a top Ram guard for eight seasons. "We'd run off the field early to warm up (it was always cold) and kids who had been let in the park early would throw snowballs at us. We learned always to keep our helmets on.

"We'd be lined up to kick off at one o'clock, but there wouldn't be a Bear player on the field. Halas would hold them in the dressing room until the officials penalized him 15 yards for delaying the game. What did he care? We'd kick off instead from his 45-yard line and the ball would go into the end zone anyhow. It didn't hurt him, but it would have us fuming. If the Bears were kicking off, they were NEVER late.

"When we'd go to our sideline bench it would be filled with fans. We'd yell at them and they'd say, 'We paid to sit here!' and show us a ticket. And when we'd finally get seated, there'd be a bunch of vendors walking in front of us trying to sell us peanuts and candy bars!"

"Yeah," said Paul, a tough Ram center and linebacker for eight years, "I remember back in 1951 I was calling the defenses and I suddenly noticed we had 12 men on the field. It was too late to correct, for just then Bear quarterback Bob Williams threw a pass. Our defensive back, Herb Rich, intercepted it and was running down the sideline for a sure touchdown when Ray Bray, a Bear guard, leaped off the bench, ran out on the field and tackled him.

"Hankies flew, but who got the worst of it? The Rams, for we were called for clipping and the Bears for having 12 men on the field and the play went over, with the Bears keeping the ball. The officials never did notice that we also had 12 men on the field. I think that was the only pro game where 24 men took part in one play!"

"And don't forget how in the early 50s the Bear fans used to spy on our practices," Daugherty chimed in. "Joe Stydahar, our coach, would load us on a bus, go to an empty field and start to work. A crowd would gather and Joe would put us back on the bus and hunt for another vacant berth. That would go on all week."

"Remember when Halas used a bull horn on the sidelines to roar at officials when he thought he saw a Ram foul?" asked Richter, a great Ram linebacker, center and field-goal kicker for nine seasons. "We used to joke about going to Chicago to play against Halas, 12 players, five officials and 46,000 fans.

"The first thing I'd do going into a dressing-room was check over the doors to see if the place was bugged. When our coaches went to their press-box booths to handle the phones to our bench there'd be a row of strangers in a second row of seats right behind them. We called 'em Halas relatives.

"One year Bob Waterfield was in the booth. It was a fourth-down play and the Rams were due to punt. But we had a fake play where the center passed to a halfback and we opened a hole for him through the line. We hadn't even run it in practice—just sketched it on the blackboard.

"Bob phoned the play down and immediately a Bear player got off the bench and rushed in the game. The Bears set up a defense for a running play and never sent a man back to cover a punt! Yeah, we always looked for something different when we played the Bears."

Now that week is here again. What will Halas come up with to confuse his old foes and his onetime helper, George Allen?

4TH QUARTER RALLY

Beverly Hills Passes For Win Over Tartars

By MIKE EGGERS
Press-Herald Staff Writer

Beverly Hills picked up its first Sky League victory Friday night by conquering Torrance, 21-13, on the Tartar field.

Beverly Hills scored the first of his two touchdowns from 2-yards out, capping an 85-yard drive. Doug Kelsey's kick for the extra point was good and the Tartars trailed 7-6.

An onside kick late in the fourth quarter iced the tight 14-13 battle for the Normans.

Halfback Dave McMullen grabbed the ball for the first down on the Tartar 41-yard line, opening the way for quarterback Jim Heumann's 25-yard pass to Steve Horowitz for the final score.

Both teams battled to a scoreless first period, with Beverly Hills dominating most of the action. Heumann passed for 52 yards, while Halfback Jerry Peck led the ground attack with 29 yards. With 12 seconds remaining in the half Heumann connected to Back Ralph Punaro for a 10-yard score. A 22-yard pass from Heumann to Punaro, and a pitchout to Peck set up the TD.

It was a wild second half for Torrance. Bill Bynum scored the first of his two touchdowns from 2-yards out, capping an 85-yard drive. Doug Kelsey's kick for the extra point was good and the Tartars trailed 7-6.

Torrance made a last quarter comeback as Bynum picked up his second score on a 20-yard quarterback rollout. Kelsey's kick for the extra point was good and the Tartars led, 13-7, for the first time in the game.

Beverly Hills' offense exploded with 9 minutes remaining as Heumann connected to Punaro for 20 and 17-yard gains. Heumann took it over from 8-yards out.

An onside kick with 5:51 left to play set the Normans up for the final TD pass to Horowitz.

Torrance's Mark Hornbeck and Dave Kline teamed for 49 yards, but a pass fumble by end Brian Lynn with Norman back John Cole recovering, halted the Tartar effort with 2:15 remaining.

POSTGAME TOPICS ... Heumann sparked his team with an even 200-yard aerial attack. Jerry Peck led the running attack with 99 yards in 17 carries. Hornbeck, Kline, and Bynum had 278 yards in 48 carries.

Torrance did find itself a winner at halftime at least with the Tartar drill team putting on an impressive Tijuana Brass performance, complete with steering wheels for the TJB's recording of Tijuana Taxi ... Beverly plays its next game against underdog Rolling Hills.

ST. BERNARD FALLS

Graham Returns Punt 80 Yards

By HENRY BURKE
Press-Herald Sports Editor

When Homecoming Queen Nora Venable paraded into Bishop Montgomery football village at halftime Friday evening her Knights led St. Bernard's, 30-0. The varsity failed to score for her in the second half, but the team did start the Camino Real League season with a whitewash.

Montgomery's four first half touchdowns and safety came on two passes and two runs by Quarterback Danny Graham and a blocked punt by Tackle John Sullivan. Dennis Haren had a perfect night of place kicking in four attempts. One of Graham's runs was an 80-yard punt return.

Montgomery's home schedule winds up next Friday against Crespi, the only team to beat the Knights last year, 14-7.

In defense of its title Friday, Crespi blew a 7-0 halftime lead to Fermin Lasuen and was beaten, 13-7.

Going into the Crespi game several members of the Montgomery squad may be required to nurse minor wounds. Playing between the third period, Graham and Center-Linebacker Pat Kealey were stretched out with leg cramps. The last of Fullback Ed Gilles' 13 carries netted him five yards and a "swift kick." When helped from the field he had run 77 yards for a 6.5 average.

Gilles' first three runs in the first two minutes of the game were repetitious 9-yards. He got Montgomery drive interrupted by a 68-TD clipping penalty. But following the infraction, the Vikings gave Chuck Bongard too much running room and he caught a 46-yard pass from Graham and fell into the end zone as he was tackled.

The Vikings took over on their own 37, but another muffed point gave the ball back to Montgomery on the 4-yard line. After four stabs and Montgomery was still two yards away, leaving St. Bernard's trailing 7-0 and in at the end of the quarter.

Rushing the punt from the end zone, John Sullivan got his hands on the ball and blocked it out of bounds for a safety.

There was no relief in immediate sight for the Vikings who kicked off to Knights and had them score in three plays from 45 yards out, Graham threw to Patterson for 26 yards and went 15 yards on a rollout for the score.

Beautiful blocking sent Graham to paydirt untouched. A few minutes later Dan took a punt on his own 20 and galloped the distance, Rich Pipkin, Pat Kealey, Dan Pritchett and Sullivan made key blocks.

No sooner did the Vikings return their third kickoff to the 31, the ball fumbled away to Straley again. Three plays later Graham connected to Patterson for a 22-yard touchdown.

The Knights' only moment of glory in the second half was stopping St. Bernard's at the 2-yard line after a 55-yard advance. The winners had five of six completions to get as far as the opposition's 20-yard line in three first six minutes, but Graham gave up his third interception of the year to stymie the drive.

FOOTBALL HEROICS ... Tackle Mark Leamy and End Jay Crawford did not suit up for the game. Leamy took it easy after hurting his back in the last game and Crawford pulled a ligament in his ankle ... Tackle John Sullivan was outstanding on defense and Guard Rich Pipkin had his best night of the year at guard ... Dan Pritchett spelled Bob Comstock at halfback late in the game and caught a 9-yard pass. Pritchett is the No. 2 quarterback and is used as a defensive back ... Again the Knights ran fewer offensive plays than their opponent, 33-48, but led in total yardage, 282-116 ... St. Bernard was minus 10 yards for the first half ... Graham's 9-for-16 in passing gives him 47-for-78 for the year. He has 13 TD passes and 702 yards. Graham leads in TD pass gives him 8 for the year. He leads in pass receptions with 14 for 271 yards ... Ed Gilles has run the ball 48 times for 343 yards and a 10.7 average. On Bernard's won the JV game, 34-13 and the Cees, 13-0.

SCORE BY QUARTERS

St. Bernard ....0 0 0 0— 0

West Loses, 20-14

By JERRY REYNOLDS
Press-Herald Staff Writer

An erratic Lawndale line rallied in the fourth quarter Friday night to halt a West High drive a yard short of a touchdown and preserve a 20-14 Pioneer League victory.

The win gave Lawndale a share of the Pioneer League lead and left West 0-1 in the league and 1-4 on the season.

"I can't believe we played that good and got beat," West coach Fred Peterson lamented. Peterson praised his line for its best effort of the year, singling out two Steves — Renz and Sirridge —for outstanding efforts.

The final drive began on the Lawndale 48-yard line. West came with a first-and-10 situation on the 4-yard line, but Dave Boyd, the Warriors 200-pound tailback, was stopped at the 1-yard line on fourth down and Lawndale took over.

Lawndale drove to the West 31 which killed Rudy Metoyer doing most of the work, then Metoyer fumbled and Dave Ciscel recovered for West with 1:40 on the clock. Quarterback Coy Hall threw two incomplete passes before he connected on a tackle-eligible pass to Mike Menth—only to lose the first down because of ineligible receiver penalty.

A fourth down pass fell incomplete and Lawndale ran out the final 1:11.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the first period with West scoring first. Hall capped a 49-yard drive by sneaking in from a yard out. Lawndale's Jeff Freeman scored on a 4-yard run to end a 64-yard drive.

West held a 7-6 lead at the half after a scoreless second quarter.

Lawndale took the lead just seconds into the third period when West's Jim Parton quick-kicked on a third down and Mike Ernaga ran the ball 92 yards back to the end zone. Ernaga also ran for the conversion.

Two plays later, West halfback Joel Hons found a hole in the right side of the Cardinal line and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. Allen Coward kicked his second extra point and West led, 14-13.

Lawndale added its final score on a 57-yard drive with Doug Willard taking a 4-yard pass from QB Paul Ratcliff. Willard scored after West had held the Cardinals at the 4-yard line for three downs.

Freeman ran for the conversion and the 20-14 lead.

Ratcliff came in the game in the second quarter when starter Jim Coleman was hit head-on and dazed.

Coleman's injury came just minutes after Metoyer was injured and had to be helped off the field. Metoyer, however, came back as the final period began and his hard running in the final minutes probably saved the game for Lawndale.

Boyd carried 13 times for 55 yards, Hons got the ball five times and ran for 88 yards, including the TD run. Metoyer, despite the injury, carried the football 15 times for 65 yards.

OH! MY ACHIN' BACK ... Mark Leamy, Bishop Montgomery tackle, missed Friday night's Camino Real League opener against St. Bernard's after sustaining a back injury against Verbum Dei the previous week. Leamy, however, is expected back in action next Friday when the Knights clash with defending champion Crespi in a home game. Montgomery won its league opener against St. Bernard's, 30-0.
