vide our patrons and friends to join with us in celebrating the beginning of our 30th year in business and the opening of our newest Golden State Paint Center in Torrance." President Victor Schneider said.

He was joined by general manager C. R. (Cy) Manson, who said Golden State was "extremely conscious of the great privilege" of becoming part of a thriving community such as Torrance.

Mason said the company's officials were impressed with the tremendous energy they noted everywhere in the Torrance area, "energy manifesting itself in vast building projects and community enterprises." Manager of the new Torrance store will be James F. Tanner. The store is easy to spot, Tanner pointed out. It's the only one in town with a bright green parking lot. The new store is located between Carson Street and Monterey near the new Torrance Post Office.

Commenting on the 30th anniversary of the firm, President Schneider said the company's principle from the outset had been to handle only the finest quality paints, paint supplies, and decorating materials.

CALIFORNIA NEEDS PROPOSITION #1

WHAT IS PROPOSITION #1?

PUBLIC RETIREMENT FUNDS. Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 57. Legislature may authorize investment of moneys of any public pension or retirement fund, except Teachers Retirement Fund, in stocks, shares or other obligation of any corporation. Provides various safeguards restricting investment amounts and policies.

YES!

#1 REDUCES TAXPAYER PRESSURES Helps taxpayers. Could permit tax reduction. By providing funds for retirement system needs in future, Proposition #1 helps avoid pressure for increased taxes to finance retirement benefits.

#1 HELPS FINANCE RETIREMENT BENEFITS Helps public employees. Their retirement needs increase with inflation. Increased income to retirement funds can finance this needed increase.

#1 HELPS RETIREMENT FUNDS RESIST INFLATION Common stock investment by funds is today's trend. More than 30 states do it. Life insurance and banking funds do it. College endowment funds do it. Corporate and union funds do it. Common stock investment is recognized as today's best hedge against inflation.

#1 SAFEGUARDS RETIREMENT FUNDS Proposition #1 provides safeguards limiting the percentage of a fund's assets that can be invested in stocks, setting a minimum size for corporations whose stocks may be purchased, providing that only the nation's most substantial companies may qualify, and requiring good dividend performance.

WHO IS FOR PROPOSITION #1?

Daily newspapers of Los Angeles, San Francisco, San Diego, and most other major California cities. California State Chamber of Commerce • California State AFL-CIO • California Real Estate Association • California Taxpayers Association • California League of Cities • County Supervisors Association of California • Property Owners Tax Association of Calif. and many other leading organizations and newspapers.
