

Lomita Chamber Sponsors Annual Children's Party

The 1966 rerunning of the Children's Christmas Program in Lomita has been scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 22, according to James Becker, president of the sponsoring Lomita Chamber of Commerce.

The annual affair, which has drawn an average audience of 300 to the shows in the gymnasium of the Lomita Recreation Center, will open this year with a 7:30 appearance of the popular Brunner family of Hollywood, operators of the Popcorn Theatre Marionettes. The Brunners—Vivin, Paris, and John D.—

will return to an open stage at 9:30 and invite the children to gather around while they explain the workings of the marionettes.

The dancing puppets—some as pink, yellow and green glow worms—will light up as they sing in the latest Brunner productions called, "The Invisible Hike." Their appearance is co-sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Lomita Rotary Club.

Business Club Elects Officers

Lynn Caine has been elected president of the South High chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America, according to Mrs. Sue Anderson and Walter Carlson, faculty sponsors.

Other officers are Fern Laskow, vice president; Sandy Anderson, secretary; Linda Burton, corresponding secretary, and Pat Arlick, treasurer.

Santa Claus is expected to pay a visit to the center during the program. Refreshments will be served to the holiday crowd.

HOLIDAY TREAT . . . A return performance of the Brunner family—Vivian, Paris, and John D.—has been scheduled as part of the annual children's Christmas program to be held in Lomita on Thursday, Dec. 22, at the Lomita Recreation Center. The Brunners are co-sponsored in their Lomita appearance by the Lomita Rotary Club and the Lomita Chamber of Commerce. Their Popcorn Theatre Marionettes have been a popular attraction.
