Hickory School's annual Christmas program was pre-sented on Wednesday, Dec. 14, in the Torrance High School auditorium. The change in locale was made this year in order to accomodate the larger than usual number of parents in attend-ance. "Christmas Past, Pres-ent and Future," was the theme of the program with performances by the school orchestra and band under the guidance of Mr. Eloe, and the middle and upper grade chorus under the guidance of Miss O'Brien. Among the Hickory PTA Christmas projects conduct-ed last weak were contribu

Bloodmobile In Torrance Tomorrow

A Red Cross Bloodmobile will be held Dec. 19 from 3 until 7:30 p.m. at the Church of the Latter Day Saints, Torrance Stake, 4110 W. 226th St.

The Torrance Junior Woman's Club, the only organization in Torrance helping to man the bloodmobiles, will be on hand to assist. The drives for blood are held once or twice each month.

According to Mrs. David Wade, president of the Junior Club, the city of Torrance donates more blood than most cities because of the industries in the area. The blood is used at Children's Hospital, Long Beach Veterans Hospital, Ortho-paedic Hospital and in local Club Hostess , organization and blood accounts. church.
