NEW YORK CITY—Now is the season when the rich birds fly south. The rates go up in the Caribbean rum-and-Coca Cola hotels. And the help are limbering up under the limbo bar.

Some good cruises out of New York and Miami: Nine days to Jamaica and Haiti on a Dutch freighter for $300. They fly you back to New York on the last day. Or you can come back by island-hopping plane. Stop over wherever and as long as you like for the same fare. Not bad.

Hard to beat that for price even in the charter clubs.

The airline will sell you GIT fares to any place in Europe. The competition is what they give you with it. Only drawback to these trips is that they are limited to 14 and 21 day excursions. No good if you want to stay longer.

"... whatever would be the cheapest way to Hawaii this winter?"

Another new fare is working for you to Hawaii. "Inclusive charter tour" fare. In this case you must stay with the group, but the price is right. What it amounts to is the Government lets a travel agent sell charter group fares to the general public.

Lowest price example: $319 takes you round trip West Coast-Hawaii. Includes 10 days on Hawaii, Maui and Honolulu plus all hotels, transfers, inter-island flying. You have to buy this from a travel agent. All of them know about it.

This fare will probably be extended to Orient trips this winter. It doesn't seem to me quite as good as the GIT fares to Europe. But it's an improvement.

"... what is worn on a freighter cruise?"

On these short runs, I'd say coat and tie at night. Shorts and slacks daytimes. Women might wear a cocktail dress once or twice.

On long freighter cruises, formally breakdown—there are only 12 of you. I was on a freighter for 28 days. Everybody wore ties and coats for dinner the first week. At Panama they opened the hatches. We had copra aboard. The copra bugs came out. And that was the end of dressing for dinner.

"The CHEAPEST way to a ski resort in Europe? Can we join a charter club?"

The rule on charter clubs is that you must be a member for six months before you can take the trip. So what you want is the new "group inclusive fare." (This is so good that anyone going to Europe is foolish to pay more.)

The "GIT" fare is based on 15 people going to the same place at the same time on the same airplane and coming back the same way. You don't have to know the other people. And you don't have to stay with them. You put in your name, destination and time. The airline packages 14 other people like you by computer.

To preserve the word "tour" (which allows the low fare), you must buy $70 worth of group action: hotels or sightseeing. All airplanes are competing with different packages. The trick is to shop them all. Ask for folders.

Example: Lufthansa has a combination with Hertz rent cars: $343 gives you a round trip New York to Austrian Tyrol. It includes 20 hotel nights plus a Hertz Volkswagen with ski racks, snow tires and 600 miles free.

Doctors quit smoking

CHICAGO — According to a recent survey, 52% of American doctors do not smoke. Many quit recently due, according to the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, to the conclusive evidence linking cigarettes and lung cancer.

Many doctors gave up smoking without straining their will power thanks to a new tablet which helps to progressively eliminate the need for nicotine and, as a result, the desire to smoke. Less than 2% of the 150,000 smokers who tried this tablet reported they still smoke!

Smokers interested in receiving information (free) about this new tablet are invited to contact directly the Anti-Tobacco Center of America, Dept. 106-L, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, New York.

It is sufficient to send your name and address. Just a post-card will do.
