

Clubwomen To Attend Workshop

Marina District 18, CFWC, will hold an all-day Council and Workshop tomorrow at the Crenshaw Christian Church, Inglewood, with the district Cornelia Club as hostess.

At the morning session, Mrs. J. B. Attkisson, state conservation chairman, will be the speaker followed by a panel discussion by Marina District chairmen.

After the luncheon, workshops will be held for District club officers and chairmen.

Those attending from the Torrance Woman's Club will be Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, president; John Tweedy, vice president; R. J. Winship, vice president; F. M. Shaw, recording secretary; Richard Dorothy, program; D. L. Sears, parliamentarian; H.M. Cabill, art and drama; Ira Avent, California history; H. R. Richards, conservation; Gordon Gmur, education; R. L. Rudy, home-crafts; Clayton Lilley, press book; D. J. Thomson, publicity; and R. E. Shaw.

Camp Fire Girls Name New Officers

WaKata Camp Fire Girls of Arnold School elected new officers at their first meeting of the year. They are Jodi Wolfinger, president; Terri Conway, vice president; Laura Notke, secretary and Kathy Conway, treasurer.

A committee was also appointed to plan the next ceremonial. The Camp Fire Girls hold their regular meetings in the Arnold School cafeteria. The girls will support an American Indian child this year.

Bouquet of Marigolds

Riviera Hospital's Marigolds

Installation Luncheon Set

Marigolds, a junior volunteer group affiliated with the Riviera Community Hospital will stage their installation and Awards luncheon Saturday, Sept. 30 at 12 noon at the Indian Village restaurant. For this event the girls will be joined by their mothers.

New officers, whose names will be announced at the meeting will be installed and award service pins will be presented to Marigolds who have qualified by serving the required number of hours.

Charles Johnson, new administrator at the Riviera Hospital, will be introduced.

Current officers of the junior volunteers are Luan Nannini, president, Susan Smith, vice president; Diane Scarlett, secretary; Luci Sinclair, treasurer; and Nancy Rohweller, historian.

Membership in the Marigolds is limited to 40. Girls must be 14 to 18 years of age and in good health.

The group provides volunteer non-professional help at the hospital. To raise funds to finance their needs the Marigolds hold a bake sale in the hospital lobby on the first Saturday of each month.

During October a hospital training program for the new volunteers will be held; in November, a Red Cross First Aid Training; and in December the Marigolds will be decorating and caroling at the hospital.
