

Church Pays Tribute to 'Launching' Job Center To Start

Pastor on Anniversary

The Rev. and Mrs. Walter M. Stanton have been honored by the congregation as they began their 15th year at the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The Rev. Mr. Stanton became pastor of the church in 1952.

A reception honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Stanton was held in the Guild Hall, Special guests included the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Nagel of the First Methodist Church of Torrance and the Rev. R. Wallis

A "bulldozer launching" will be one of the highlights of formal groundbreaking ceremonies Friday for the Southern California Regional Occupational Center (SCROC). Ceremonies are scheduled at 11 a.m. Friday at the SCROC site, 2300 Crenshaw Blvd.

Captain Charles A. Gardner Jr., USN, executive officer of the U. S. Naval Supply Center in Long Beach, will participate in the launching.

DR. JOHN Mendel, manager of the Hughes Electronics Division here and CONGRESSMAN Alphonso Bell (R-28th District), will be the featured speaker at Friday's ceremonies.

Other participants will include Dr. Wayne Butterbaugh, superintendent of the center, and members of the SCROC governing board. The Aviation High School Band will perform and a color guard from the Long Beach Naval
