

RAMS EYE REMATCH AT FRISCO

It could be a case of land warfare Sunday when the Rams (4-1-2) and the 49ers (5-2-0) get together for a little skirmishing at San Francisco.

Winner's prize is certainly second place in the Coastal Division, and perhaps a share for first in the Rams' case if leader Baltimore (5-0-1) loses to Green Bay the same day.

Each team has a group of powerful runners. Los Angeles, last week's NFL rushing leader, piled up another 165 yards on the ground in the 28-17 win at Chicago to make its seven-game total 1114 and a 159-per-game average. Individually, Les Josephson and Dick Bass have 406 and 401 respectively and Tom y Mason is beginning to make noises too.

San Francisco can also move the ball on the ground. Ken Willard, John David Crow, Gary Lewis and Doug Cunningham have kept the Bay Area club among the league's top rushers all season.

It was a pass from John Brodie to Sonny Randle, however, that won it for the 49ers in the last meeting between the two rivals, 27-24, in Los Angeles.

Clinic Set For Officials In Basketball

A basketball officials' clinic sponsored by the Gardena and Torrance Recreation and Parks Departments will be held at the Gardena Community Center, 1651 W. 162nd St., Gardena starting Wednesday, Nov. 15, 7:30 p.m.

Mike O'Neill will instruct the clinic which will be held at the Community Center building on Wednesday evenings for three weeks; a fourth session, Mechanics of Officiation, will be held Wednesday, Dec. 6, at a gym in Torrance.

Each person attending the clinic will be charged a $3.50 fee to cover cost of books, printed material, etc., to be payable at the first class session attending.

Those completing the clinic will be certified as basketball officials by the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation (SCMAF). A list of certified officials will be mailed to all municipalities in the Bay area.

Advance registration is necessary so officials kits may be ordered. Les Phillips, Gardena Recreation and Parks Departments (327-0220 ext. 241) and Allen Shaal (FA. 8-5310, ext. 244) are in charge.

NEW YORK TAKES ON LAKER 5

Long on talent but short on victories, the New York Knickerbockers come to the Los Angeles Sports Arena tonight to meet the Lakers at 8 p.m.

The Knicks figure to be one of the strongest teams in professional basketball, and are intent on reversing an earlier loss to the Lakers and starting their bid for the top spot in the Eastern Division.

New York is "awesome" on the front line, with the sharpshooting and great rebounding duo of 6'10" Willis Reed and 6'11" Walt Bellamy leading a crew which includes Phil Jackson, Neil Johnson, Cazzie Russell and Dick Van Arsdale.

The Knicks backcourt is just as dangerous with Dick Barnett, Howie Komives, Em Bryant and flashy rookie Walt Frazier.

The Lakers, one man short in the corners and one important man short in the backcourt, still turned back this star-studded aggregation, 114-106, in Madison Square Garden last month as Captain Elgin Baylor, Archie Clark and Mel Counts combined for 72 points, 40 rebounds and 16 assists.

Baseball Exhibit Planned

Baseball fans of all ages will be served exciting new fare next year when "The Wonderful World of Baseball Exposition" will be presented in the Great Western Exhibit Center, Los Angeles, May 2-5.

According to producer, Jim Scott, president of Baseball Productions, a nationally acclaimed "great" will host the 4-day indoor-outdoor extravaganza.

Spectator participation events, batting, pitching and base-running contests and prizes and several hundred exhibits displayed by sporting goods and allied manufacturers and retailers will be offered.

Famed collections of mementos and souvenirs from such outstanding institutions as Helms Hall and prominent individuals will be prominently displayed throughout the show.

In addition to in-person appearances of many baseball stars who will sign autographs, demonstrate playing techniques and pose for pictures with spectators, a continuous showing of game films will be featured.

Miss Major League Baseball for 1968 and individual club queens selected in a televised beauty pageant will preside over all events.

Santa Ana Blossoms As Best in Football

Santa Ana's Saints regained the No. 1 position in the weekly Prep Football "AAAA" poll. El Rancho is second.

The Saints scored an impressive 34-0 victory over Westminster. El Rancho topped Montebello, 26-7.

Santa Barbara, after its sixth impressive (54-7) victory over Thousand Oaks, moved up to the third-place position to challenge the leaders and Blair, which bowed to Burroughs in a nip-and-tuck 7-6 battle, dropped to sixth place.

On the "AAA" level, Temple City and Morningside continued their battle for first-place supremacy.

Several key contests are on tap for this weekend as El Rancho tackles once-beaten Whittier, Santa Barbara meets Hueneme (4-1-1), Blair faces Pasadena (5-1), Servite and Mater Dei collide in their second annual contest at Anaheim Stadium, and Notre Dame and St. Anthony vie for the Catholic League crown.

On the "AAA" level, Morningside tackles speller Rolling Hills, Crespi faces highly-touted Bishop Montgomery and

Two Weeks Remain for Bike Riders

The final doubleheader of the 1967 motorcycle racing season is set for Ascot Park Friday and Saturday evenings.

Post time for both the flat-track meet on Friday and the steeplechase go-round on Saturday is 8:15.

The Saturday steeplechasing will be the final one of the 1967 campaign. It will bring out most of the leading stars in the west.

The rider to beat is hustling Skip Van Leuwen, of Sherman Oaks, who has enjoyed one of his greatest years. Skip's big win was the 50-lap U. S. Steeplechase championship earlier this season at the 183rd and Vermont Ave. course.

There are only two more flat-track races left this year, so the riders figure to be all-out far a payday Friday. Dan Haaby, Lawndale, is the likely 1967 Pacific Coast champion. Dan seems to be gaining more poise and class with each start.

Lawndale squares off against high-flying Palos Verdes.

SEVERAL important clinics are on tap for the next few weeks as basketball, wrestling and soccer start to swing into pre-season action.

At Monrovia High School, the Southern California Interscholastic Basketball Coaches' Association is sponsoring a statisticians' clinic. Keynote speaker is Bill Anderson, head statistician at UCLA, and two tests will be given to the high school chart-keepers in attendance. Anderson will show a fine film of last season's UCLA team in action.
