ONE-DAY SUSPENSION

Sales Operations Of Brewery Halted

SACRAMENTO—The state Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, for the first time in history, has shut down sales operations of amajor brewery because of illegal trade practices.

The halt in sales, for the Pabst Brewing Co. in Los Angeles was a short one, however it was a one-day suspension, effective yesterday. In another part of its investigation of illegal trade practices, the department ordered a five-day suspension of the four licenses of the Max Sobel Wholesale Liquors in San Francisco, effective in San Francisco, effective Jan. 1.

The Pabst firm had been charged on 26 suspensions as the settlement was final. Accusations were filed against the two firms in September as part of a big-scale investigation of illegal trade practices in the industry launched by Edward J. Kirby, by the department, There is no limit on the discounts the filing of an accusation against the two firms in sale reaction on the filing of an accusation against the two firms in the filing of an accusation against the two firms in each owners and enforced by Edward J.
