

Reorganization Of Employment Department Set

Capitol News Service
SACRAMENTO — A reorganization of the department of employment, to give the deputy director a direct line of authority in the farm labor service, has been announced by Governor Ronald Reagan.

In his recent message to the legislature on agriculture, the creation of a separate and identifiable farm labor service had been one of the major planks. The announced changes are intended to carry out this plan.

Before the reorganization, which will be carried out immediately by Peter Weinberger, new director of employment, the administration and operation of the farm labor service were handled through the state employment service. Responsibilities of the farm labor service's deputy director were consultative rather than executive.

UNDER THE new plan, Weinberger will administer the farm labor service through operating structure, down to the state's 29 farm labor service field offices. In communities where there are no separate farm labor service field offices, persons throughout the department's employment service who per- of the farm labor service, of years ago, with a number of employees suspended, fired or disciplined because of padding reports on the number of persons referred for employment. The farm labor service had been investigated a couple

Lawndale Gets County Funds

A county grant of $305,000 for the acquisition of right-of-way for the widening of Prairie Avenue has been awarded to the city of Lawndale. The project will include the purchase of right-of-way for a four-lane highway between Rosacrans Avenue and Redondo Beach Boulevard.
