

DISPLAY SLATED... A U. S. Air Force "Mace" missile will be exhibited at the Del Amo Shopping Center Friday through Monday. The exhibit will be set up in the northeast parking area near the self-service Postal unit. The Mace is capable of hitting targets 1,200 miles away and can travel at speeds of 650 miles per hour at altitudes ranging from 1,000 to 40,000 feet, thereby confusing enemy radar. It can be launched from mobile units such as this truck or from permanent installations.

Search for Talent

Exchange Club Names Finalists

Twelve finalists have been selected in the annual Search for Talent contest sponsored by the South Bay Exchange Club.

Finalists will compete for a chance to represent the local club in state competition tomorrow at Mira Costa High School. The program will begin at 6 p.m.

Contestants in the junior division include: Cathy Jackson, 11, of Torrance and Victor Veyrasset, 10, of Redondo Beach, who will perform a dance; Michael Garofolo, 10, of Torrance, drums; Renee, 9, and Cheri, 7, Larrium, Wilmington, dance; Jimmy Ceroni, 13, of Torrance, piano; Karla Crouse, 11, of Torrance, dance; and Jolly Rae Neal, 9, of Manhattan Beach, vocal and dance.

Senior division finalists are: Craig Preston, 17, of Torrance, piano; Ana Alvarez, 18, of Torrance, dance; Mike Orzio, 17, and Lyn Curtis, 18, both of Torrance, instrumental and vocal; George Angeles, 15, of Los Angeles, jazz accordion; and Judy Anderson, 17, of Hermosa Beach, vocal.

The winner in each division will advance to Area 20 competition. That program is scheduled April 11 at the Mira Costa auditorium, beginning at 7 p.m. Finalists from Hawthorne, Inglewood, and Long Beach exchange clubs will compete.

State finals will be held in Anaheim June 27 during the state convention of the California Exchange Clubs.

Dance Series

A course in ballroom dancing is being conducted at the Lomita Recreation Center, open to all couples interested in brushing up on old steps and learning new ones.

The class meets from 8 to 10 p.m. each Tuesday evening.

King Harbor Boat Owners Invited to Redondo Salute

Invitations were mailed this week to the more than 1,500 Redondo Beach King Harbor boat owners for the 3rd Annual Avalon "Salute to Redondo Beach," April 27 and 28.

Sponsored by the King Harbor Lessees Association and the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce, the event attracted 221 yachts and 816 people in 1967, according to General Chairman Harrison O. Daigh.

Highlights of the cruise will be a dinner-dance at the Casino Ballroom, a teenage dance, and a special kiddie movie. Chamber officials said cruise blanks and information may be obtained at the Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce office, 555 Harbor Drive, or from Portofino, King Harbor, or Port Royal Marina offices.

Queen Kathy Ellis reigned over the "Enchanted Isle" last Friday as South's Girls' League presented the Cotton Ball.

Four princesses represented their classes at the annual girl-ask-boy dance. They were: senior, Ginger Saunders; junior, Elena Sainz; sophomore, Karen Jones; and freshman, Cathy Coker.

Lynn Curtis and Bob Saunders, both holders of the double ruby in the National Forensic League, will advance to the National Speech Tournament. Both placed in the top three in recent State Speech Finals.

AT THE Long Beach One-Act Play Festival, March 29, a rating of "superior" was awarded to South High's entry. The third act of Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men," directed by Donald Craig, was one of four plays which won top ratings. Phil Sarazen, who starred as Lenny, rated "superior" for his portrayal. "Excellent" ratings were awarded to Debra Strubar, Danny Mondschein, John Elliott, and John Eckhart.

Orders of Athena and Apollo, Spartan Service Clubs, are evaluating applicants for the coming year. Students are carefully selected, for these are the students who "pledge to give thought and action to maintaining and promoting democratic, friendly cooperative attitudes among the students in all school activities, and to promoting desirable school conduct."

STANDING GUARD at assemblies and in the hallways during lunch are minor duties compared to the one of setting an example, and representing the school.

The type of student the interview tries to select is one who has "demonstrated outstanding qualities of citizenship, devotion and service to our school, and who has contributed to school spirit."

Here today, more tomorrow.

One of the nicest things about Great Western Savings is the way your money grows every 24 hours. More...every tomorrow.

What makes it happen? Daily Compounding. We compound your earnings every day at the highest interest in the nation on insured savings.

How about your tomorrow? It starts with you. When you open your Great Western Savings account...and save regularly...and give your money time to grow. In only 13 years and 11 months, at 5% compounded daily, money doubles. With that kind of growth—plus the great strength of $800 million in assets—you can be sure about tomorrow.

...and tomorrow...and tomorrow...and tomorrow...

5%/5.13% PASSBOOK SAVINGS ACCOUNT—Because we compound daily, our current annual rate of 5% pays you 5.13% when maintained a year. Funds earn from day received, or from the 1st when in by the 10th. You also earn to date of withdrawal, payable at quarter's end, on funds held 3 months or longer. 5.25% BONUS INTEREST ACCOUNT—Pays you a bonus of .25% per year on savings of $1,000 or more (in multiples of $1,000) maintained 36 months or longer.
