

Arabian Nights Fashion Event

Talking It
Over With The Sultan

Planning to make their "Thousand and One Dreams" two-night fashion extravaganza a spectacular, two members of St. Catherine's Women's Council, Mrs. Arthur Glassman, right, door prize chairman, and Mrs. Jim Cendrowski, patrons chairman, held a tete-a-tete with Ali Boo Boo, the Sultan. The fashion presentations will take place May 28 and 29 at the parish hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance. (Press-Herald Photo)

'Thousand and One Dreams'

Council Presents Two-Night Benefit

Lavish throne room of the Caliph of mythical kingdom of the Far East will serve as an exotic setting for the presentation of "A Thousand and One Dreams" fashion production on May 28 and 29 at St. Catherine Laboure Parish Hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance.

Unfolding like a tale from the Arabian Nights will be the annual affair sponsored by St. Catherine Council of Women, co-chaired by Mrs. George Neeland and Mrs. Lee Gallegos. Mrs. Walter Hanf, production coordinator, has woven an intriguing narrative to delight the guests with entertainment interspersed with fashions coordinated by Mrs. Robert Schloeder.

Three wishes will be granted by the Genii and each will be awarded at the two-night event. The grand wish will be a 17-day vacation in Mexico for two, with accommodations at the Maria Isabel in Mexico City, the El Presidente in Acapulco, and Posada Vallarta in Puerto Vallarta; the second wish will be a week for two at Rancho La Puerta, Tecate, Baja; and the third will be a weekend at the Flamigo Hotel in Las Vegas. Many other prizes will be awarded from the Caliph's Treasure Chest.

Tickets may be purchased by calling Mrs. Keith Harmon, or Mrs. Don Croxson.

Other members of the Fashion Show committee include Mmes. Irvin Gleason, Jim Koonz, Gerald Lytle, Frank Stone, Andres Galindo, Jim Cendrowski, Claude Cass.

Also, Mmes. Chuck Stoddard, Homer Monteros, Ray Soto, Carl Metzler, Raymond Gordon, Arthur Glassman, Alex Bravo, Larry Plummer, George Ittner, Fred Messbarger, and Loren Mack. Lee Gallegos and Robert Schloeder and members of the Holy Name Society will handle the social hour refreshments.

Mrs. Lewis Gleason, president of the council, extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

APRIL 3, 1968

B-1

City of Hope
Benefit

Grand Ballroom of the Proud Bird restaurant, 11022 Aviation Blvd., will be the festive setting for the 10th annual Dinner-Dance to be presented by the Sam Levy Chapter, City of Hope, on Saturday evening April 20. Busy with decorations are, from left, Mmes. Jerry Scharfman, making a floral arrangement, Ernest Erickson, spraying a bird cage, and Harold Wolpert, working with flowers. Co-chairmen for the dinner-dance are Mrs. Wolpert and Mrs. Neal Silence, newly-elected president. (Press-Herald Photo)

Junior Hospital Volunteers

Marigolds Install Officers

With their mothers as guests, the Marigolds, junior volunteer organization affiliated with the Riviera Community Hospital, held their semi-annual installation of officers at a luncheon at the Indian Village restaurant Saturday.

Miss Gail Lambert, retiring president, installed the new officers. They are Misses Sally Haack, president; Chris Soard, vice-president; Debby Grimes, secretary; Eileen Parrot, treasurer; and Darlene McLellan, historian.

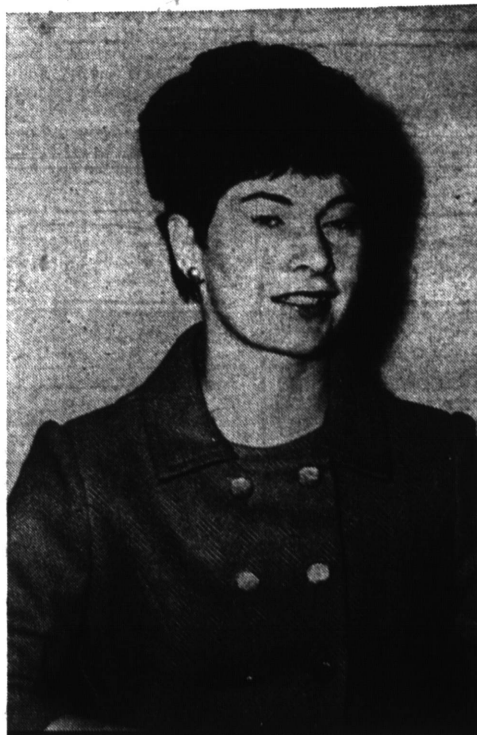

All members received their gold-colored, marigold shaped service pins which are engraved with the Riviera Community Hospital volunteer insignia.

Special pins were also awarded for service hours. Guest speakers at the installation were Mrs. Patricia Dalrymple, director of Nursing at Riviera Hospital, and Charles Johnson, hospital administrator.

Membership in the Marigolds is open to girls 14 to 18 years of age.

They assist nurses with feeding patients, making beds, reading to patients and filling in where needed in non-professional capacities.

MRS. MICHAEL RILEY
... District President

Local Junior Named To District Office

Mrs. Michael Riley of Torrance was elected president of the Marina District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, Juniors for the coming year at their March Conference held recently at the El Segundo Women's Clubhouse. Other officers elected at the meeting were Mmes. Ralph Lanphere of El Segundo, first vice-president; Giyora Doeh of the Manhattan Beach Dolphins, second vice-president; Kenneth Kippel of the Lawndale Monday Eves., financial secretary; David Pivoroff of El Segundo, recording-corresponding secretary; Robert Long of Torrance, treasurer and Stewart Grossberg of Westloy, press and publicity.

Mrs. Riley is a member of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club and is presently serving as parliamentarian for her club and auditor for the Marina District Juniors. Her previous experience in Juniors includes, president of the San Pedro Juniors and press chairman for both Los Cerritos and Marina District Juniors. She was awarded first place in State competition last year for her district press procedure book.

She is married to Michael Riley, a special agent for Standard Oil Company and a former Torrance policeman. They reside at 2723 West 178th Street, Torrance, where they live with their children Kathy 7, Betsy 6 and Mike 5.

Mrs. Riley earned her BA at the University of California Riverside, and did post graduate work at UCLA and the University of Washington. She has worked at numerous jobs, most important has been her work as first grade teacher.

Other organizations with which she is affiliated are the UC Riverside Alumni Association, Los Cerritos District Juniors Alumni and the PTA.

Mrs. Riley and the members of the Marina District Juniors Board for the year 1968-1969 will be installed at the Marina District Juniors convention in Palm Spring on April 26.

Melvilles Announce Margot's Engagement

At a family dinner last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. John Butte Melville, 3220 Merrill Dr., announced the engagement of their daughter, Margot Louise, to Howard William Achenbach.

The wedding will be solemnized May 25 at the Nativity Catholic Church in Torrance.

The future bride is a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School. She attended San Jose State College and was affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Miss Melville is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brunner, pioneer residents of this area.

Mr. Achenbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bergman of Torrance, was graduated from Torrance High School. He is employed by U.S. Steel.

Marigolds
Serve with Pleasure

Marigolds, members of the junior volunteer group at the Riviera Hospital, can be found doing many non-professional services for the staff and patients alike. The girls installed their new officers at a luncheon recently and pictured here are Sally Haack 17, left, a South High student, who became the new president, Gail Lambert 18, also a South High student, retiring president, delivering flowers to Mrs. Lynn D. Compton, a patient and wife of a deputy district attorney of Los Angeles. (Press-Herald Photo)

Easter
Breakfast,
Egg Hunt

To find the golden egg will be the goal for children of the Dianas attending the club's annual Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt at the Redondo City Park. Because with the golden egg comes a prize. Mrs. Ronald Zirpolo, chairman, says a hearty breakfast for all will precede the hunt. Easter bunnies and colored eggs will decorate the tables, according to Mrs. Norm Merritt, decorations chairman. Enthusiastic about the great day are, from left, Ronnie and Tommy Zirpolo, Mrs. Albert Rolstead and Jim Rolstead. In the front, from left, Angie Rolstead, Mrs. Ronald Zirpolo, breakfast chairman, and John Rolstead. (Press-Herald Photo)