

Las Colinas Prepares For Flower Show-Tea

"Flores Del Parque" is the theme of the Las Colinas Garden Club's annual Flower Show and Membership Tea to be held Tuesday, April 16, between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

The Rotary Building in El Retiro Park, 126 Vista Parque is the location selected for the show this year.

Friends and guests will view the many exhibits entered by the members of the club in both artistic and horticulture divisions. Ribbons will be awarded in each class—first, second and third. A sweepstakes award will also be given.

The flower show chairman is Mrs. Richard Diedrich. Co-hostesses will be Mmes. Ernest Jacobs, Francis Brannon, Frank Carroll, Davis Cochran, Willard Cowell, William Doty, and William Phillips.

Auxiliary Will Hear Surgeon

Dr. Paul McKissock will be the guest speaker at the general meeting of the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary on April 10.

Members and their guests will hear Dr. McKissock speak and show slides on "Reconstructive Surgery."

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the ground floor meeting room.

R. L. Moffitts Return From South America

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Moffitt, 1434 Post Ave., returned Friday from a month long holiday touring Central and South America.

Sightseeing was enjoyed in Guatemala and Caracas before the couple went to Rio de Janeiro for a nine day visit with their son, Charles, who is on a two year assignment in Rio with the United States Embassy.

Traveling south, the Moffitts visited Buenos Aires and Punta del Este. On the return trip they stopped at other places of interest flying home from Panama.

South Bay Hospital Auxiliary

Announces Fashion Event

Mrs. Alan Smith of Torrance has been named chairman of the benefit Fashion Show to be presented by the Auxiliary to the South Bay Hospital. "Flight into Fashion" is the theme chosen for the gala social event which will take place at the Ambassador Hotel on April 25. A social hour at 11 a.m. will precede the noon luncheon and parade of designer fashions.

Assisting Mrs. Smith with arrangements for the event will be Mmes. Carleton Clark, co-chairman; Clarence Warth, Herbert Wintroub, Charles Broyles, Donald Zinc, Wayne Donovan, Christopher Eason, Donald Kachman, Richard Nielsen, W. Butler, V. G. Cardoza and Joseph Manning.

Proceeds from this annual event will be used by the auxiliary for nursing scholarships.

Mrs. W. E. Butler may be called for tickets and reservations.

Crippled Children's Benefit

Alumnae Plan Egg Hunt

South Bay Alpha Delta Pi Alumnae Association will stage its benefit Children's Easter Egg Hunt on Thursday morning, April 11, at 11 a.m. at the Vista Grande School, 7032 Purple Ridge Rd., Palos Verdes Peninsula.

dren expected to attend will be divided into two groups, pre-schoolers and school age. Alumnae members will color 50 dozen eggs to be hidden in two separate areas. Individually wrapped chocolate candy eggs, plastic eggs, and small prizes will also be hidden for the hunting pleasure of the younger set.

At Firm's Training Conference

Mrs. Elsie Jigamian, office supervisor for the South Bay district agency of the Prudential Insurance Co., located at 1401 Cravens Ave., attended a two-day training conference at the firm's western home office in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Jigamian met with 81 supervisors from 12 western states in a series of seminars exploring the role of the office supervisor.

The seminars included such topics as: added policyholder service, field office to home office communication, and overall company objectives.

Refreshments consisting of coffee, fruit, punch, rolls, and doughnuts will be served following the hunt. Bunny ears and tails and name tags will be provided for each small guest. These were made at an alumnae workshop under the direction of Mrs. Towner.

Serving as hostesses will be Mmes. Grant Laney and Gerald Fagan, San Pedro; Babe Schoning, Hermosa Beach; Don Fladseth, Rolling Hills Estates; Harry Smith, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Arthur Clayton, Manhattan Beach; and Robert Dunaetz, Manhattan Beach.
