

GOOD LUCK . . . Attorney General Thomas Lynch (right) wishes Leo F. X. Salisbury well in his bid for a seat on the Torrance City Council. Lynch told Salisbury he is "well qualified to be a Torrance councilman and your community and state can use your judgment and enthusiasm." Lynch was honored Saturday at a Rolling Hills reception, Salisbury, who owns his own tire company, is a former planning commissioner and chairman of the Torrance Merchants Sign Committee. He is campaigning on a platform of "effectiveness, independence, and responsiveness to the will of the people."

Neighbors Ignore Barking As Burglars Plunder Home

A dog's constant barking failed to alert neighbors Monday night as burglars stole $1,140 worth of jewelry and appliances from the home of Thomas J. Pendergrass Jr., 19318 Sturgess Ave.

Pendergrass arrived home late that night to discover his dog locked in the garage. Neighbors said they heard the dog barking at about 6 p.m. but didn't investigate because they were eating dinner.

Another apparent burglary was reported to police Monday. John R. Greenmeyer, 18833 Cordary St., discovered that $1,500 in cash had been taken from an envelope hidden in his bedroom.

Greenmeyer believes the money was stolen by someone who is familiar with his home because nothing else was taken and the house wasn't ransacked.

The victim had last checked the hidden money March 14.
