Loyola Crew to Begin Season at Long Beach

The 1968 season for Loyola University's crew starts on Saturday at 11 a.m. with races at the Long Beach Marine Stadium against Orange Coast College, Golden West, Oregon State, Long Beach State, U.C. Irvine, and UCLA.

The races will mark the seventh season of competition in the water sport for the Loyolans. Last year they placed sixth on the Pacific Coast for varsity and freshmen and seventh for junior varsity out of 20 major colleges and universities participating.

This year's varsity boat has an average height of 6 foot 3 1/2 inches, with an average weight of 185 and a crew composed of four seniors, two juniors and two sophomores to give an overall experience

Parties To Honor Candidate

Two cocktail parties will be held this week in south Torrance honoring Blayne Asher, candidate for Torrance Council.

Several hundred guests have accepted invitations to meet Asher at the campaign wind-up affairs, according to Clarence Turner, campaign manager for Asher.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner will sponsor a "Champagne Fountain" party tomorrow evening. Dr. and Mrs. Donald Cortum will host the "Saturday night gathering."

El Camino Plays Two Ball Games

Ending the second round of Metropolitan Conference baseball action, the El Camino squad is host to L.A. Valley on Friday at 2:30 p.m. and travels to Bakersfield Saturday for a 1:30 p.m. clash.

The Warriors dropped two Metro battles over the weekend to fall into fifth place with a 5-6 Metro slate. Bakersfield is leading in the Metro pennant race with a half-game edge over Long Beach City College and Cerritos. The Renegades possess a 9-2 record, while both Cerritos and LBCC hang second with 8-3 marks.

During first round action, El Camino beat the Renegades, 5-3. However, since that time Bakersfield has won four straight.

The Warriors gave up a 3-2 decision to Cerritos and fell 4-0 to LBCC.

El Camino Golf Team Plays

The El Camino College tennis team travels to Rio Hondo College today for a match with the seventh-place Roadrunners. The Warriors will be out for a repeat 9-0 shutout in the first round of Metro play.

Last week's action saw the Warriors shoot down Santa Monica City College, 6-3. Number-one seeded Dave Footitt fought off Lou Drobnick to defeat him, 1-6, 6-4, 6-2.

By default, captain Mike Hyne won over Craig Fugle, 6-3, 3-1.
