April Movies Listed For Joslyn Center

"Hollywood — the Golden Years," a film history of the silent movies, will be the first film presentation of the Joslyn Film Series for the month of April this Friday.

Narrated by Gene Kelly, "The Golden Years" includes scenes from film and nostalgic views of, and commentary about famous craftsmen and stars.

A second film entitled "The Voice of the Desert" will be shown. Joslyn Center is at 3335 Torrance Blvd.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, the film series is geared toward family entertainment.

Films will be exhibited from 7:30 to 9:30 every Friday night. There is no admission charge.

"The Circus," a film produced by NBC-TV and narrated by the world famous clown, Emmett Kelly, will be featured April 12. The circus, a rapidly disappearing form of entertainment in America, is seen from the viewpoint of performers, roustabouts and the audience. A second film, "The Aged Land," contrasts ancient Greece with today's life.

Three movies April 19 are "Ordeal and Triumph," which presents the music and life story of Beethoven, "Sailing," which depicts sailing under varied conditions and "Three Pirates Bold," the story of two boys and a dog in search of a treasure in the Bahama Islands.

In honor of the Spanish Festival, the film "Many Faces of Spain" will be featured April 26. The film studies the people, religion and culture of Spain.

In cooperation with the Los Angeles County Museum

"Foothold on Antarctic," a documentary about the ship "Theron" traveling through ice in the Weddell Sea, and "Antarctic Crossing," a filmed account of the Commonwealth Trans-Atlantic Expedition, will also be shown April 26.

South High Sophomores To Visit Guidance Center

More than 400 South High School sophomores will visit the 7th Annual Career Guidance Center April 23 and 25, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 4 p.m., and evenings April 18 and 24 from 7 to 10 p.m. There is no admission charge.

Sponsored by the Los Angeles County superintendent of schools office, the center is a "supermarket" of job titles and future career information made available to supplement the school's counseling programs.

To prepare students for the future, the Career Guidance Center will provide an opportunity for visitors to browse through graphic displays of 85 agencies, industries, and professional organizations, featuring more than 500 various job titles and careers available in today's society. The Center provides ample time for the students to meet with the occupational representatives to discuss questions and requirements pertinent to a particular field.

Dr. John A. Lucas, principal, states he believes the Center, with a history of six years of phenomenal success, is a vital augmentation to the regular school program in helping the young students to set their future career goals.

The Career Guidance Center will be at the Great West-

Heart Attack Blamed in Man's Death

The wife of a Wilmington longshoreman found her husband collapsed on the floor of their Torrance home Saturday morning, dead of an apparent heart attack.

The victim is Joseph Edward Zack, 62, of 24243 Neece St., pronounced dead on arrival at Little Company of Mary Hospital.

His wife Mary told police Zack has risen early to brew some coffee. When she smelled something burning, Mrs. Zack went to the kitchen to find her husband lying on the floor.

Fire Department rescue team was unable to revive the victim.

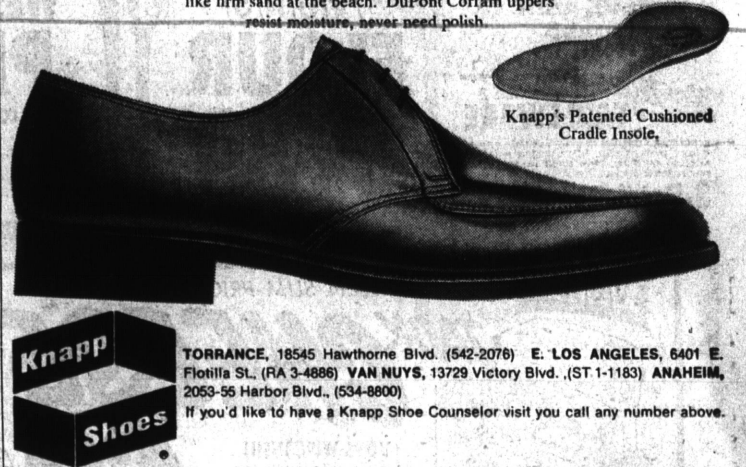

Fireman Keith A. Decker, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith M. Decker of 5617 Ruby Place, is serving aboard the Seventh Fleet destroyer USS Bradley in Southeast Asia.

Look what electricity is starting now

A sequence of flashing lights on the electric "christmas tree" is the go signal for these 200 mph dragsters.

About eight seconds later, at the end of the quarter mile, electronic timers record their speed to the thousandth of a second.

From the elaborate scoreboards in the new stadia to the super powerful lights that make night football and baseball possible, just about every sport you can think of has come to depend on electricity in some way.

Electricity has brought about a "golden age" for the sports fan. Television and radio let him keep up with dozens of different sports around the world. The cost is so little most people don't even think about it. Millions of avid fans are getting the greatest spectator bargain in history.

Only electricity can do so much for so little.
