

'Hallelujah, Hallelujah, Let the Holy Anthem Rise'

A scene at St. James Catholic Church this Easter Sunday morning as the Feast of the Resurrection is commemorated. Altar boys, in silhouette, participating are, from left, Michael McCrea, James Gately and Michael Harrison. Photography is by Gordon Akers of the Press-Herald Staff.

But on the first day of the week at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared, and they found the stone rolled back from the tomb. But on entering, they did not find the body of Jesus. And it came to pass, while they were wondering what to make of this, that, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling raiment. And when the women were struck with fear and bowed their faces to the ground, they said to them, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how He spoke to you while He was yet in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and on the third day rise"

And they remembered His words. And having returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest.

Luke: Chapter 24: 1-10.

'Hopping Down the Bunny Trail'

Colorful Easter Baskets for all.

Next year maybe. Six-months-old Duane Kirks enjoys a doughnut.

A few hints on where to look for eggs is given Allison Ahlers by the Easter Bunny, Mrs. Pat Spoonmore.

Robin Raines 3, and Diane Esposito 5, compare Easter baskets.

Stephen Butler 5, is joined by the bunny in counting the eggs from his basket.
