Indians To Leave Friday

An entourage of 200 teenage Papago Indians and their chaperones will leave Torrance Friday to return to their reservation in Arizona.

The students, who attend Oasis School in Sells, Ariz., have been guests of Torrance High School since April 10.

During the first five days of their visit they camped in the gymnasiums at Torrance High. This week they are staying at the YWCA and the First Methodist Church.

U.S. production of ice cream in February, 58,235,000 gallons, is the highest February ice cream output on record.

When Torrance High School students returned to class after Easter vacation Monday, they took their Arizona guests to class with them.

This morning the Papagos accompanied their hosts to the Career Guidance Center at the Great Western Exposition Hall; and this afternoon they will tour the Torrance area as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Highlighting their visit Monday night was a public performance of Indian dances. Other sights they took in during their visit included:

Disneyland, Knott's Berry Farm, the Los Angeles Zoo, the Los Angeles County Museum, Griffith Park Observatory, Universal Studios, the Hollywood Bowl, and Vandenberg Air Force Base.

Drafting Class Hula Rhythms

A workshop for drafting teachers will be held at El Camino College for four consecutive Saturdays beginning April 20. The class will be held in the Industry and Technology building from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Women interested in learning hula rhythms may attend the Hawaiian Dance Class to be held at the Lomita Recreation Center. The class begins Wednesday, April 24, at 10:45 a.m. Bette Jo Zankie is the instructor. There will be a $6 charge for the 8-week course.
